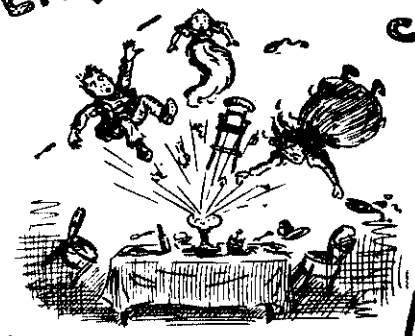
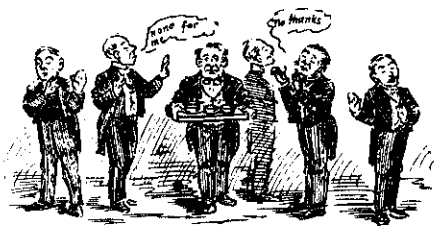
EFFECT OF THE WAR ON COMMERCE



"Kerosine has a decided upward tendency."

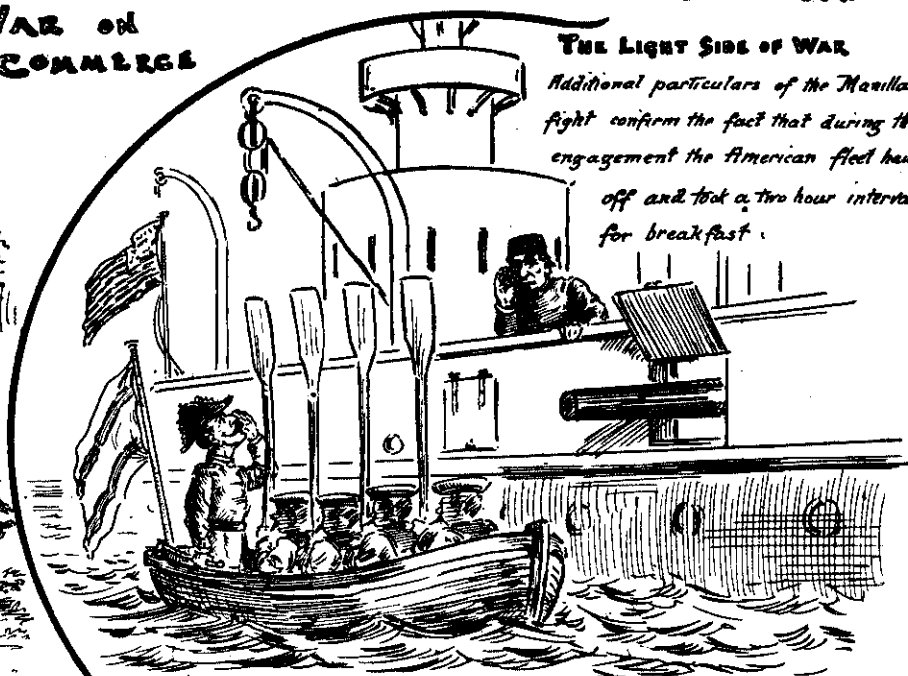
"There is a brisk movement in soft goods."



"Tea has suffered an all-round decline"

THE LIGHT SIDE OF WAR

Additional particulars of the Manilla fight confirm the fact that during the engagement the American fleet hauled off and took a two hour interval for breakfast.



"Admiral Pasaran desires me to state that the Spanish breakfast things are mashed up and the tables — I mean the decks are cleared for action again. Are you ready?"

"Well just ask your old Admiral to hold off a bit longer, will you?, our old man has just passed up his plate for another sausage."

Bacon: there is a difficulty in fixing quotations

A Hamilton nurseryman has developed a new apple seedling called the "Dick Seddon". It is described as large, rotund and ruddy-faced and highly patatable.

The head of the Gov^t coming down on the head of the Opposition. The Hon. Capt Russell posing as Sir Isaac Newton discovering the law of gravity, or rather the gravity of politics by the fall of a "Dick Seddon"

(A.C.C. log.) "It's all very fine for people to say 'why dont yer get on with h'all this 'ere work'; but if the Public thinks as I'm a'goin' to be in any kind of a hurry over things why the Public's a jolly h'old h'ass!"
