

I learn that girls as general servants, and girls from twelve years old following parents, come out free; and you will therefore be good enough to refund me what I have paid too much, and exempt me from payment of their share of promissory notes. I also brought out a baby six months old which ought to be free, and no boy three years old; wherefore I ought to be refunded the passage money charged for him, also his share of promissory notes.

I have paid to the agent in Copenhagen, for the respective individuals, as follows:—

						R. Dlr. Swedish.
Carl Wackrow,	45 years,	1 adult	...	...	...	50
Elna Wackrow,	43 years,	1 adult	...	...	...	50
Marie Wackrow,*	17 years,	1 adult	...	...	...	50
Carl Wackrow,	14 years,	1 adult	...	...	...	50

Sophie Wackrow,	9 years,	$\frac{1}{2}$ adult	...	...	...	25

Christina Eckberg,†	...	1 adult	...	...	...	50

I also was charged with doctor's examination fee, 20 R. Dlr. extra, by the agent in Hamburg for the baby; it was saw (sic).

The agent in Copenhagen also received our certificates of birth, baptism, vaccination, confirmation, and marriage, which we fully expected to have received back here. Requesting you to have the above looked into.

I have, &c.,

CARL WACKROW,
(by J. Graff).

A. F. Halcombe, Esq., Immigration Officer.

* Of these are free—Marie, 50; Augusta, 50; August, 25; C. Eckberg, 50—total, 175 R. Dlr. Swedish.
