I have, &c.,

THEOPHILUS DANIEL,
Immigration Officer.

To the Immigration Officer, Oamaru.

No. 67.

MEMORANDUM No. 01, 1873, for the AGENT-GENERAL, London.

THE nominated list herewith being that of relatives of certain single females who have recently arrived in the Colony, has been sent into this office under the idea that these persons are willing to emigrate, although their friends here are not in a position to nominate them; and it has occurred to me that you might with advantage communicate with them, informing them of the terms upon which passages are granted to the Colony.

Lands and Immigration Office,
Wellington, New Zealand, 5th May, 1873.

G. MAURICE O'ROKKE.
