IX. The filling up the accompanying "Form of Application" does not, nor does even the signature of the "Certificates," entitle the Applicant to a passage; and he is warned against leaving his employment, or making any preparation for emigrating, before he has received his "Contract Ticket."

Replies are not sent when applicants are ineligible.

X. The emigrants are expected to pay their own expenses to the port, and up to the period of embarkation, including Dock dues upon luggage; but in special cases, if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Agent-General that the emigrant is an Agricultural Labourer and unable to pay the whole of these expenses, an advance in aid will be made; for the sum so advanced the emigrant will be required to sign a promissory note.

XI. If any false statement or false signature shall be found in the Form of Application, or the Certificates, or if the Applicant shall fail to embark at the time and place required; or if, upon appearing at the place of embarkation, any emigrant shall be found to have any infectious disorder, or any bodily or mental defect, contrary to the statement in the application, such emigrant will not be allowed to embark, and will forfeit any deposit which may have been made on account of his passage

XII. The emigrant should state the name of the Province to which he desires to proceed. On receiving this information, the Agent-General will acquaint him with the date of sailing of the next
