* This Ordinance was disallowed by the Governor on 20th March, 1867, as being ultra vires (Gazette, 1867, p. 121). To have inserted it in the Schedule of "The County of Westland Act, 1868," was an error, and the Ordinance has thereby acquired no validity. It remains null and void.

* The repealing effect of an ordinance of an original province embraces the offshoot of that province.

† Comprising all that portion of the North Island which lies to the south of a line commencing at the centre of the mouth of the Patea River, where it joins the sea, and running thence due east until it reaches the east coast of the said Island, with the whole of the Middle Island, Stewart Island, the Chatham Islands, and all adjacent islands within the boundaries of the colony.

‡ The Constabulary Force Ordinance of the Legislative Council, Sess. VII., No. 2, which is in force in all the provincial districts, relates to the organization of the Force; this ordinance of New Munster relates exclusively to municipal and social offences.

NOTE.—A letter within parenthesis (W), (C), (O) indicates the Ordinance of the original province (Wellington, Canterbury, or Otago) that effects a repeal within the new province.

SYNTHETICAL TABLE of the Laws relating to Social Economy and Municipal and Rural Police now in Force within the several Provincial Districts throughout the Colony.
