

1882.

NEW ZEALAND.

NAVAL AND MILITARY AND LOCAL FORCES LAND CLAIMS COMMISSION

(REPORT OF THE).

Presented to both Houses of the General Assembly by Command of His Excellency.

ARTHUR GORDON, Governor.

To all to whom these presents shall come, and to THEODORE MINET HAULTAIN, JAMES FULTON, and HENRY BUNNY.

WHEREAS under divers Acts, Ordinances, regulations, or other laws now or in times past in force in the Colony of New Zealand or in some part thereof, divers persons being either officers, non-commissioned officers, or private members of Her Majesty's naval and military forces, or in the Militia Force of the said colony, or in the Volunteer Forces of the said colony, or in some other military body or force enrolled in the said colony, have had or alleged that they have claims upon the Government of the said colony, or of some province thereof, to grants of land in the said colony, either for services rendered by them in such capacities in the said colony, or as having retired from such forces for the purpose of settling in New Zealand, or otherwise about or in connection with their being or having been such officers, non-commissioned officers, or private members as aforesaid: And whereas such claims are not now capable of being enforced in law, either owing to the same not having been presented within the time prescribed by law, or for other reasons of a technical character: And whereas from time to time petitions have been presented to the General Assembly, or to one House thereof, by certain of such officers, non-commissioned officers, or private members, or by the representatives or assigns of such, praying for relief in the premises: And whereas, in pursuance of a recommendation of the Waste Lands Committee of the House of Representatives, it is thought desirable to appoint a Commission for the purpose of inquiring fully into and reporting upon all such claims, and any others of a similar character:

Now, therefore, know ye that I, Arthur Hamilton Gordon, Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, having full trust and confidence in your impartiality, ability, and integrity, do hereby, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the Colony of New Zealand, appoint you, the said THEODORE MINET HAULTAIN, JAMES FULTON, and HENRY BUNNY, to be Commissioners for the purposes hereinafter mentioned, with the powers hereinafter set forth and subject thereto, to have and exercise the several duties and functions hereinafter mentioned, that is to say,—

1. To inquire into, examine, and report upon all claims to land which may be brought before you by persons who have been such officers, non-commissioned officers, or private members as aforesaid, or by the representatives or assigns of such officers, non-commissioned officers, or private members, all of whom are hereinafter referred to as claimants, which such claimants may claim to have had against the Government of the colony, or of some province thereof, of such a character as is hereinbefore recited.

2. You are authorized and empowered to make and to hold any inquiry under these presents at any place or places within the Colony of New Zealand as you may think most convenient and adapted to elicit full information respecting the matters which you may be called upon to inquire into under these presents.

3. Before you commence any inquiry under these presents, you shall cause such notice or notices as you may deem necessary or expedient to be given, stating the day, time, and place or places on and at which you will be prepared to receive claims, and indicating in what form you wish such claims to be preferred, and also the day, time, and place when and where you will be prepared to receive and hear any evidence or information which any claimants may desire to offer or bring before you in support of their claims.

4. You shall cause every such notice to be given and published in such manner and form as you may from time to time prescribe, and at such place or places as you may deem best calculated to give effect to these presents.

5. For the purpose of this Commission, you are hereby empowered to call before you and examine on oath or otherwise as may be allowed by law, all such person or persons as you may think able to afford you any information in relation to the premises.

6. Each claimant shall be entitled to present his claim in such manner and form as you may from time to time prescribe.

7. You may also require any person or persons to bring before you and produce in evidence (saving all just exceptions), any books, papers, deeds, or documents of which any Court of law might compel the production.

8. You are hereby also empowered, in case no claim is made or evidence offered before you in respect of any matter which might have been made the subject of such a claim as aforesaid, of your own motion to examine into and report upon such matter which may be in any manner brought to your knowledge, and although the same shall not be made or preferred by any claimant; and in any such case you shall have or may exercise all and every the powers and authorities conferred upon you by these presents.

9. In giving effect to this Commission, you shall have full power and authority to employ such clerks, short-hand writers, and other persons as you may deem necessary for your assistance in the premises.

10. In case any inquiry under these presents shall be made and concluded by you, and it shall afterwards appear desirable for any reason that the same shall be reopened, you are hereby empowered to reopen the same, and all proceedings shall be taken in respect of such reopened inquiry as if it were an original inquiry: Provided that no inquiry shall be entered upon after the date fixed for the making of your report under this Commission.

11. And it is hereby declared that this Commission shall continue in full force and virtue, and you the said Commissioners may from time to time, and at any place or places within the said colony, proceed in the execution hereof, although the inquiry be not regularly continued from time to time by adjournment.

12. And you are hereby required, with as little delay as possible, but not later than three calendar months from the date hereof, to report to me under your hands and seals your opinion resulting from the said inquiry and the evidence taken thereon of the several matters and things inquired into by you under these presents: Provided always that you may report separately upon each claim, or from time to time upon any one or more of such claims without waiting for the completion of your inquiries into all the claims which may be brought before you.

13. Lastly, it is hereby expressly declared that all the powers, authorities, and duties conferred or imposed upon you the said Commissioners may be exercised and performed by any two of you sitting and acting together, and that you the said THEODORE MINET HAULTAIN shall act as Chairman under this said Commission.

Given under the hand of His Excellency the Honorable Arthur Hamilton Gordon, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the Western Pacific, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony at Wellington, this sixteenth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

Approved in Council.

FORSTER GORING,

Clerk of the Executive Council.

WM. ROLLESTON,
Minister of Lands.

I do hereby extend the period within which the Commissioners herein appointed shall send in their report to Thursday, 15th June, 1882.

Approved in Council, this ninth day of May, 1882.

FORSTER GORING,

Clerk of the Executive Council.

A. GORDON,
Governor.

To His Excellency Sir Arthur Hamilton Gordon, G.C.M.G., Governor of New Zealand, &c., &c.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,—

We, the undersigned, appointed by a Commission dated the 16th day of February, 1882, under the hand of the Governor, and sealed with the public seal of the colony, to examine and report upon all claims to land brought before us by officers or private members of Her Majesty's naval and military forces, as having retired to settle in New Zealand; and by members of the local forces of the colony for services rendered by them in such capacities—which claims, owing to lapse of time or from technical reasons, cannot now be enforced by law—respectfully submit for your Excellency's consideration the following report of our proceedings:—

In conformity with the 3rd clause of the above-mentioned Commission, we have caused to be inserted in the principal newspapers throughout the colony, notices calling upon all persons claiming, under any laws or regulations now or in time past in force in the colony, to be or to have been entitled to grants of land, or to remission of money in the purchase of land, as retired members of Her Majesty's forces, or for services rendered in colonial corps, to forward to us applications showing the nature and grounds of their claims.

In reply to these notices we have received 1,582 applications from different persons. We have found that a large number of these claims had little or nothing to recommend them, and that many were based upon the notion that the Commissioners had power to extend or alter the law in their favour, or had at their disposal blocks of land to be awarded as compensation for losses sustained or for services rendered during the war, or for length of service in Her Majesty's forces. We have, notwithstanding, carefully examined them all; taking evidence wherever we could obtain it, and making references to the various departments of Government from which authentic information might be obtained.

In order to facilitate the inquiries we were instructed to institute, we have visited and held sittings at Wellington, Auckland, the Thames, New Plymouth, Wanganui, Napier, Dunedin, Oamaru, Christchurch, and Blenheim.

In determining the various applications we have been guided mainly by these two considerations:—

1st. That it was not within our province to go beyond the law by entertaining claims that might have been valid had they been preferred at the proper time and in the proper manner, but which had been allowed to lapse through the manifest neglect or indifference of the claimants themselves; and,

2nd. That we were required to do justice to those who, from purely technical difficulties, excusable ignorance, or from the neglect or error of those in authority, who ought to have forwarded the claims and furthered the interests of their men, had failed to secure those advantages which the law allowed to them. Amongst these last we have included a number of discharged soldiers, who, from having no one to inform them of their privileges or to advise and assist them in obtaining the land to which they were entitled, either omitted to make their applications within the stipulated time, or were rebuffed by difficulties and technical objections often raised by Crown Lands Commissioners, who were more anxious to augment the provincial revenues than to part with the land.

We have satisfied ourselves that the claimants so recommended completed the requisite period of residence in their respective districts, but as a rule we have excluded all those living in provincial districts where the Acts were never in force, and also those discharged in the colony subsequent to 1861, after which time no plea of ignorance could reasonably be admitted, as the conditions were then well known in all the regiments serving in New Zealand. Where exceptions have been made to this rule there have been special circumstances to influence our decision.

In advocating this extension of the law on behalf of old soldiers we are supported by the Public Petitions Committee of 1879, who recommended "that the claims of soldiers discharged in the colony should be recognized where at any time the claimants have been entitled to grants of land, but through informality or ignorance of the regulations failed to comply with the conditions."

There are two cases, each including many applicants, which we think require special remark, and we give a short summary of the principal points; the full particulars are contained in evidence taken by the present Commissioners; in that taken by Major Gordon, a previous Commissioner; in Reports of the Petitions Committees of the House of Representatives on various occasions; and in voluminous correspondence with the Defence Office. We refer to the claim of Major Jackson and the Forest Rangers, and to that of the Defence Force raised at Auckland by the late Colonel Nixon (which latter was favourably reported on in 1873 by the Commissioner, Major Gordon).

In August, 1863, Major Jackson was directed to enrol for three months a certain number of men for a special service as Forest Rangers. In consideration of the arduous and dangerous duties they had to perform, they received a very high rate of pay, viz., 8s. a day, which was more than treble that of the ordinary militiaman or military settler. Other conditions of enrolment are given in a memorandum in the handwriting of Mr. T. Russell, the then Defence Minister, in which it is stated that "in addition to the ordinary grant, the Government will "make a grant of land to any man who distinguishes himself, or to the widow of "any man who may be killed in action." After the three months' service had expired some of these men were re-enrolled on a lower rate of pay, and served for the three years required from military settlers, and received the ordinary grants of land. For each of those who elected to quit the corps after the three months when the rate of pay was reduced from 8s. to 5s. a day, Major Jackson claims a grant of land, and for those who continued and served for the three years, two grants, one as an original Forest Ranger and another as a military settler. This interpretation of the conditions of enrolment was repudiated by Mr. Russell on the 19th October, 1864, when he informed Major Jackson that the men who did not re-enrol were not entitled to land, and again in his letter addressed to Sir D. McLean on the 14th September, 1874, when he enters fully into the whole question.

We are of opinion that the "ordinary" grant implied a grant under the ordinary conditions, which conditions having been published in the Government Gazette with reference to military settlers in Auckland on the very date of the memorandum, prove to us that they must have been in Mr. Russell's mind when he wrote it. We consider, therefore, that the claims of Major Jackson and his men have been satisfied by the grants which they have already received.

Up to the time of the appointment of the Commission no claim had been put forward by Major Jackson, or by any of his men, for the additional grant promised for distinguished service. That officer now avers that he did perform such service, and produces, amongst other evidence, the Gazette of the 9th April, 1864, which contains a notice of the promotion of several officers, including himself, for "distinguished service." He also claims a like grant for several of his men, and specifies occasions on which they distinguished themselves. Whilst recognizing his special qualifications for such a command, and the high courage displayed by his men, and the excellent service they performed, we do not think we are justified in recommending them for the reward, now for the first time, claimed for them. The services rendered by his men were such as were expected from a carefully-selected corps, receiving a much higher rate of pay than was given to the regiments of military settlers, while the land allotted to them at Rangiaohia was the choicest portion of the whole Waikato Delta. We may add further that Major Jackson's promotion gave him an additional quantity of valuable land in the same district.

We have found more difficulty in coming to a conclusion in the other cases. There is no doubt that Colonel Nixon did inform his men that they would receive land in addition to their pay, and that he did induce some of them to join the Defence Force by that statement. The question is: Had he sufficient warrant for making such an offer? There is no documentary evidence of any kind to show that he was authorized to do so. On the contrary, the original memorandum, fixing the rates of pay in Mr. Russell's handwriting, and the notifications inserted at the time in the newspapers inviting men to join, make no mention of land, and Mr. Russell stated before the Petitions Committee of the House of Representatives in the following year, 1864, "that there was no engagement with the "members of the Defence Force that they should have grants of land, and a higher "rate of pay was fixed for them in lieu of land." It appears, from the evidence that has been taken on oath, that Colonel Nixon based his promise to the men chiefly on conversations he had had with the then Governor, Sir George Grey, but Sir George Grey has stated, in reply to a letter addressed to him by Major Gordon, as Commissioner, in July, 1875, that he could not remember any facts connected with the claim, that he had nothing to do with the granting or apportionment of land in the Waikato, the whole power connected with this subject being in the hands of his responsible advisers, with whom he did not interfere in the matter.

After carefully considering the whole question, we are of opinion that the promise made by Colonel Nixon was made without sufficient warrant, and was not sustained by any Act or regulation then or afterwards in force; and we do not think the Government are called upon to carry out such a promise, and therefore do not recommend that the claims should be admitted.

There is another case which we only notice to express our strong condemnation of the conduct of two officers and some men of the 1st Waikato Regiment, who have put forward a claim on account of town allotments, which they state were not granted to them in accordance with their conditions of service. On their being located at Tauranga in 1866, the Superintendent of Auckland, Mr. Whitaker, at their request, agreed to give them quarter-acre allotments in the township of Te Papa, which was not confiscated land, instead of one-acre allotments in a military township to be laid off at the Gate Pa. As the land in the township on the shores of the harbour was of much greater value than the other, which was two or three miles away, they readily accepted the offer, and yet, apparently in the hope that an arrangement made at their own instance sixteen years ago would now escape notice, they ask that the balance of the allotments may be made good to them. We think it a matter of surprise and regret that two officers who have both held commissions in Her Majesty's service should have been guilty of such an attempt to obtain grants to which they have not the slightest claim.

We have had to deal with a number of claims made by Volunteers enrolled between the years 1873 and 1876, whose title to scrip was quashed by the 3rd section of "The Waste Land Administration Act, 1876," which cancelled the rights of all Volunteers who had not then completed three years' "efficient" service. These men complain that the repeal of conditions in force at the time of their enrolment was a great hardship—that they took service on the faith of promises guaranteed to them by the law of the colony, and that the repeal of that law was unjust and arbitrary in its retrospective character. We find that this matter has more than once been brought before the House of Representatives, and in 1878 the Petitions Committee recommended that the rights abolished by the Act of 1876 should be maintained.

We have considered it our duty to reject all claims of this character that have been brought before us, but we think that the Legislature should be invited to reconsider the matter, and, if practicable, restore their rights to all those men enrolled before the 31st October, 1876, who subsequently, by continuous service, completed their five years as efficient Volunteers.

Should the grants we have recommended be confirmed by the Legislature, we would suggest that due notice should be given to each applicant that his claim has been allowed; that, where land has been awarded, scrip available only in the district where the claimant resides should be issued at the rate of 10s. an acre; that all scrip should be exercisable only by the person in whose favour it has been granted, and that it should be absolutely barred unless exercised within six months from the date of issue, and that a notification to this effect should be printed on the scrip itself.

Before concluding our report, we desire to state that the experience we have gained at those places where we have held our sittings has satisfied us that, to have done full justice both to the colony and to the claimants, it was desirable that inquiries should be made at every place where records could be examined. We might have extended our visits with some advantage to other places, but we were unwilling further to prolong our task, which had already extended beyond the period first named in our Commission. We believe, however, that we have fairly examined and determined, in accordance with the considerations we laid down for our guidance, every claim that has been brought before us. In carrying out the instructions contained in the 8th section of the Commission, we have searched all the Defence Office documents placed at our disposal, and the parliamentary records since 1875, to assure ourselves that no substantial claim has escaped our notice.

We have received willing assistance from all the departments of Government to whom we have referred, and especially from the Defence Office, where the records of many years back have with great labour been diligently searched. The Officers Commanding Militia Districts have also largely aided us; in particular, Major Stapp, of Taranaki, was able to furnish us with full and accurate information with respect to every applicant from that district. From Wanganui, however (we believe from no fault of the officer recently placed in command), we could obtain no information, for the Volunteer rolls could not be found, and there appeared to be no records of any kind in the office.

We attach to this report two schedules, one containing the names of those applicants whose claims we are able to recommend for favourable consideration, and the other comprising all those we have judged to be inadmissible.

All which we respectfully submit for your Excellency's consideration.

Given under our hands and seals, at Wellington, this 13th day of June, 1882.
