

	Page		Page
High Commissioner's Court for the Western Pacific:		Kimberley, Earl of—continued.
Mr. Commissioner Gorrie's explanations re the Rennell case and the powers of the Court ..	184	Forwards copy of "The Australian Colonies Duties Act, 1873" .. .. .	255
New Zealand Government thinks the Supreme Court of the Colony should have power to try British subjects for offences in the Islands	185	Kobra Trade: Mr. Sterndale .. .. .	75
The High Commissioner and his Court:		Ladrones Islands: Mr. Seed .. .. .	16
Proceedings of the Intercolonial Conference, 1881 .. .. .	191	Louisiade Archipelago: Mr. Seed .. .. .	13
Report of the Committee, as adopted .. .. .	193	Low Archipelago (The): Trade, &c.: Mr. Sterndale .. .. .	52
Papers printed for the Conference, including letters, &c. by "The Vagabond" ..	193	Pearl-fisheries .. .. .	54
The High Commissioner's reply .. .. .	207	Marquesas Archipelago: Mr. Seed .. .. .	8
Commodore Wilson's reply .. .. .	211	Mr. Sterndale .. .. .	36
The Chief Judicial Commissioner's reply ..	211	Mulgrave Group: Mr. Sterndale .. .. .	40
Mr. F. Cornwall's petition for redress of wrongs inflicted upon him in the Navigator Islands, by the action of the Court .. .. .	214	Naval:
Intercolonial Reciprocity:		Instructions to Commodore Stirling re Kidnapping (1872) .. .. .	162
Tasmania's proposal for a Conference, with a view to Commercial Federation and Intercolonial Free-Trade (1870) .. .. .	229	Naval Defence:
New Zealand declines to join, but is in favour of reciprocal tariff arrangements .. .. .	230	New Zealand .. .. .	168
Agreement between New South Wales, New Zealand, and Queensland (1870) .. .. .	231	Lord Kimberley's view as to Great Britain's duty .. .. .	169
Opinion of the Attorney-General of New Zealand (Mr. Prendergast) .. .. .	233	Departure of the "Virago" would leave New Zealand waters without a British ship-of-war: General correspondence .. .. .	172
Tasmanian "Intercolonial Free-Trade Act, 1870" .. .. .	234	Mr. Vogel's report of negotiations in England (1871) .. .. .	175
New Zealand "Colonial Reciprocity Bill, 1870" ..	235	The Australasian Colonies: Resolutions of Conference of 1881 .. .. .	178
The Imperial Government's objections to these (and other) Bills (1871) .. .. .	235	Navigator Islands:
Mr. Vogel's memorandum on this Despatch ..	238	Mr. Seed .. .. .	6
Lord Kimberley's review of the whole correspondence (1872) .. .. .	240	Mr. Sterndale .. .. .	26
New South Wales: Despatches, &c. .. .. .	244	Address of New Zealand Legislative Council, and memorandum by Mr. W. Fox, as to establishment of British authority .. .. .	133
Victoria: Despatches, &c. .. .. .	246	Her Majesty's Government cannot advise assumption of protectorate or sovereignty ..	134
South Australia: Despatches, &c. .. .. .	247	Mr. Vogel's memorandum as to United States' arrangement with chiefs .. .. .	135
Tasmania: Despatches, &c. .. .. .	247	The American view of the arrangement ..	136
Mr. Vogel's review of Lord Kimberley's Despatch .. .. .	249	Further from New Zealand Government: They ask power to negotiate directly with chiefs, if Imperial Government will not interfere ..	137
Sir John Rose on the Canadian Customs Act, and the Duke of Buckingham and Chandos's Despatch respecting its provisions .. .. .	253	Mr. Vogel's memorandum: New Zealand should be intrusted to aid in extending British sway to these and other Polynesian islands ..	140
Resolutions of the Intercolonial Conference, 1873 "The Australian Colonies Duties Act, 1873" ..	255	Ditto: As to arrangements New Zealand might make with chiefs .. .. .	141
Memorandum by Mr. Vogel and Mr. Reynolds, proposing arrangements under the above Act	256	Native Labourers in the Group: Alleged cruelties by Mr. Cornwall .. .. .	143
Reply of Tasmania: "The Intercolonial Customs Duties Act, 1873" .. .. .	257	Ditto: Sir G. Grey's memorandum .. .. .	146
Mr. Seed's memoranda on effect of Tasmania's proposals .. .. .	258-9	Ditto: Messrs. McArthur and Co. are not concerned, or interested, in the plantation held by Mr. Cornwall .. .. .	149
New Zealand declines the proposals .. .. .	261	Mr. Seed's visit .. .. .	150
Reply of Western Australia .. .. .	261	New Britain and New Ireland: Mr. Seed .. .. .	13
Reply of Queensland .. .. .	262	New Caledonia:
Proceedings of Intercolonial Conference, 1881	263	And Loyalty Islands: Mr. Seed .. .. .	9
Kermadec Islands: Mr. Seed .. .. .	6	And Isle of Pines:
Kidnapping:		Sir G. Grey's action on France taking possession in 1853 .. .. .	96
Alleged charter of New Zealand vessels, for conveying "immigrants" to Fiji .. .. .	159	Intention of France to send convicts .. .. .	112
The Imperial Government proposes to legislate: Will the Australian Governments bear the expense? .. .. .	160	As to measures to prevent convicts escaping ..	114
New Zealand will bear the cost of trying, in the colony, offenders who sail from its ports: Memorandum by Mr. Fox .. .. .	161	Respecting the Bill for establishing French penal settlements .. .. .	114
Instructions to Commodore Stirling (1872) .. .. .	162	Arrival of amnestied Communists, &c. at Auckland: Mr. Hall's memorandum ..	116
The "Melanie" and "Challenge:" As to appointing a Queen's Proctor in New South Wales, to prosecute under the Act of 1872 ..	164	Queensland Bill "to prevent the influx of foreign and other convicts" .. .. .	122
Kimberley, Earl of:		Action of Agent-General, &c. on Mr. Hall's memorandum .. .. .	123
Cannot advise assumption of sovereignty or protectorate over Navigator group .. .. .	134	Suggested extension of San Francisco mail service to the group .. .. .	125
As to Great Britain's duty and action in case of a Naval war .. .. .	169	New Hebrides:
Reply to the suggestion as to powers to arrange for Colonial neutrality .. .. .	170	Mr. Seed .. .. .	10
As to Naval force to be maintained in New Zealand waters .. .. .	176	Arrangement between French and English Governments .. .. .	128
States objections to granting a general power to colonies to make reciprocal tariff arrangements (1871) .. .. .	235	Sir G. Grey believes the group to be a British possession .. .. .	129
Reviews correspondence with different colonies, respecting Intercolonial Reciprocity, and asks the Governments to consider "the probable effects of a measure which might tend materially to affect the relations of the colonies" to Great Britain and the rest of the Empire (1872) .. .. .	240	Sir M. E. Hicks Beach: The group is no longer within the limits of New Zealand .. .. .	129
		Sir G. Grey's reply .. .. .	129
		Export of dynamite to .. .. .	131
		New South Wales and Intercolonial Reciprocity:
		Despatches on the question generally .. .. .	244
		Norfolk Island and the Pitcairn Islanders: Sir G. Grey's proposals (1853) .. .. .	97
		Outrages by Natives:
		From 1878 to 1881: Report by the High Commissioner .. .. .	213