

1892.
NEW ZEALAND.

SHEEP-TAX COLLECTED, AND HOW EXPENDED.

Return to an Order of the House of Representatives dated 29th June, 1892.

Ordered, "That a return be furnished setting forth the amount collected by Government under the sheep-tax and how it has been expended."—(Mr. T. MACKENZIE.)

1891-1892.		£
TOTAL amount expended in the general inspection and quarantining of stock, destruction of rabbits, &c.		25,818
Total amount collected for sheep-tax, fees for registration of brands, &c. ...	£17,668
Balance from Consolidated Fund	8,150	25,818
In addition—
Contributed from Consolidated Fund under section 25 of "The Rabbit Nuisance Act Amendment Act, 1886"		7,495

Approximate Cost of Paper.—Preparation, not given; printing (1,160 copies), 15s.

By Authority: GEORGE DIBSBURY, Government Printer, Wellington.—1892.

Price 3d.]