REPORTS.

No. 22/1940.—Petition of J. CARROLL, of Henderson.

PRAYING for a compassionate grant on account of a disability allegedly contracted while employed at the Auckland Mental Hospital.

I have the honour to report that the Committee recommends this petition be referred to the Government for favourable consideration. The Committee is of the opinion that the petitioner should be granted a compassionate allowance.

22nd August, 1941.

No. 4.—Petition of JOAN WALKER BICKNELL, of Palmerston North.

PRAYING for the release of her son from the mental hospital.

I have the honour to report that the Committee has no recommendation to make.

22nd August, 1941.
