- (a) £305,000 provided on main estimates. Additional appointments of office staff, field staff, and farm managers due to increased work in connection with settlement of servicemen on the land and administration of the Servicemen's Settlement and Land Sales Act, 1943, and return to duty of staff from the Armed Forces.
- (b) £7,000 provided on main estimates. Appointment of additional field inspectors and surveyors in connection with settlement of servicemen necessitates the purchase of additional vehicles, replacement of worn-out vehicles, and supplying Government vehicles where previously private cars were used on a mileage allowance. Also, expenditure incurred in 1944-45 not brought to charge until 1945-46.
- (c) £3,500 provided on main estimates. Additional provision required for expansion of offices to accommodate increased staff and storage space for topographical maps and aerial photographs.
- (d) £2,000 provided on main estimates. Additional provision due mainly to preparatory work and mapping in connection with the census.
