

(5) SUPPLEMENTARY BENEFITS

This section accounts for 5-6 per cent. of the total expenditure. At the moment the proportional cost of this subsection is low, but with the further development of those services already in operation and the introduction of additional benefits it is to be expected that the costs of this subsection will rise considerably.

TABLE

The following table shows expenditure since commencement of the benefit.
