

1900.

NEW ZEALAND.

ADMISSION OF SOLICITORS OF COURTS OF BRITISH POSSESSIONS TO THE SUPREME COURTS IN THE UNITED KINGDOM

(DESPATCH FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE COLONIES RESPECTING THE).

Presented to both Houses of the General Assembly by Command of His Excellency.

(Circular.)

SIR,—

Downing Street, 7th August, 1900.

With reference to my circular despatch of the 1st February, 1898, I have the honour to transmit to you a copy of the Act passed during the present session of Parliament to provide for the admission of solicitors of Courts of British possessions to the Supreme Courts in the United Kingdom.

Before this Act can be applied to any British possession, Her Majesty must be satisfied that the conditions set forth in subsection (1) of section 2 are complied with.

Should, therefore, the colony under your Government desire to avail itself of the provisions of this Act, I have to request that I may be furnished with a report showing that the laws and regulations which obtain in the colony are such as to fulfil these conditions.

Where full information on the subject has already been supplied in response to my circular despatch of the 1st February, 1898, it will be sufficient to indicate whether that information is still accurate, or in what respects it needs modification or amendment.

It will be observed that this Act, which comes into operation on the 1st January next, repeals the Colonial Attorneys Relief Acts which are at present in force.

I have, &c.,

J. CHAMBERLAIN.

The Officer Administering the Government of New Zealand.

CHAPTER 14.

AN ACT to provide for the Admission of Solicitors of Courts of British Possessions to the Supreme Courts in the United Kingdom. [10th July, 1900.]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Admission of Solicitor of British possession.

1. A solicitor of a superior Court in a British possession to which this Act applies, and who has been in practice before such Court for not less than three years, may on giving due notice and the prescribed proof of his qualifications and good character, and either on passing the prescribed examination, or, in the prescribed cases, without examination, and either after service of articles of clerkship during the prescribed period, or, in the prescribed cases, without such service, be admitted a solicitor of the Supreme Court on payment of the prescribed amount in respect of stamp duties and fees.

Application of Act to British possessions.

2. (1.) Where as respects a superior Court in a British possession Her Majesty the Queen in Council is satisfied, on the report of a Secretary of State,—

- (a.) That the regulations respecting the admission of persons to be solicitors of that superior Court are such as to secure that those solicitors possess proper qualifications and competency; and
- (b.) That by the law of the British possession the solicitors of the Supreme Court will be admitted to be solicitors of the superior Court in the possession, on terms as favourable as those on which it is proposed to admit solicitors of that superior Court in pursuance of this Act to be solicitors of the Supreme Court,—
