

CLASSIFYING TRADE MARKS.

The work of classifying and reindexing trade marks has been proceeded with during the year as opportunity offered, and with the extra assistance that has been afforded the office for the purpose I trust to have some of the classes completed and available to the public during the present year.

GENERAL.

PREMISES.

The office removed in November last into rooms on the first floor of the recently erected Magistrate's Court building. These rooms are convenient to the public, and generally much better suited for the business of the office than those it has vacated.

PATENT AGENTS.

During the year two names were added to the Register, bringing the number of registered patent agents up to 54. These gentlemen now transact a large amount of business, affording efficient assistance to inventors as well as facilitating the work of the office.
