PUBLIC SERVICE SUPERANNUATION BOARD

(FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE), WITH ACCOUNTS, FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31ST
DECEMBER, 1912.

Presented to Parliament pursuant to the Provisions of the Public Service Classification and Superannuation Act, 1908.

REPORT.

THE Board has the honour to submit the following report upon the transactions in connection with the Public Service Superannuation Fund.

The Revenue Account, Balance-sheet, and Statements regarding membership and retiring and other allowances will be found appended.

Board.—The following changes in the personnel of the Board occurred during the year: W. C. Kensington, Esq., I.S.O., and F. G. B. Waldegrave, Esq., tendered their resignations on account of retirement from the service. H. J. H. Blow, Esq., I.S.O., and J. Strauchon, Esq., I.S.O., were appointed to fill the vacancies. J. W. Poynton, Esq., resigned his seat on transfer from Wellington, and Colonel Campbell was appointed in his stead. The resignation of H. R. Spence, Esq., on his transfer to London created an extraordinary vacancy in the number of elective members, and M. Fraser, Esq., being the only candidate nominated, was declared duly elected. The general election of members will take place in the month of March, 1914.

Contributors.—The number of new contributors who joined the scheme during the year was considerably greater than in previous years, the following table containing the usual particulars:—

Full particulars regarding contributors, including those who have retired from the Government service and are now on the fund, will be found in the statements appended.

Retiring and other Allowances.—Pensions for £9,095 10s. per annum were granted during the year, as follows: For age or length of service, £6,992 7s. per annum to 64 members (61 male and 3 female members); for medical unfitness for duty, £1,017 3s. to 18 members (15 male and 3 female members); to widows and children of deceased members, £540 per annum to 30 widows, and £546 per annum to 42 children.

The largest retiring-allowance granted during the year to a contributor was £521 14s., and the smallest £8 5s. per annum, while the average was £97 13s. 6d.

Those officers who retired during the year were entitled to receive the sum of £17,378 17s. 6d. accrued compensation under the Civil Service Act, 1866, had they not become participants in the benefits of the Superannuation Fund. The total amount saved to the Consolidated Fund in this manner since the initiation of the superannuation scheme has been £128,617 4s. 8d., which may fairly be set against the subsidies paid to the fund, amounting to £108,500.

Thirty-two retiring-allowances were discontinued by death, and thirteen for other causes—viz., two widows remarried, ten children reached age 14, and one allowance granted to an officer was cancelled on his re-employment.

The annual amount payable at the close of the year was £53,384 14s. 10d., as shown in the statement attached.

Income.—The total income for the year was £146,990, made up as follows:—

Members' ordinary contributions	£	107,224
Transferred from other funds		185
Contributions from Government		23,000
Fines		323
Interest		16,258
						<hr/>
Total income for year		£146,990

Outgo.—The pensions paid to contributors who have retired, and to the dependants of deceased contributors, during the year amounted to £50,780 12s. 3d.—viz., £48,205 8s. 7d. to members and £2,575 3s. 8d. to widows and children.

Refunds of contributions to contributors who have left the service, including interest £2 17s. 1d., amounted to £8,390 17s. 9d., while the refunds under section 42 to personal representatives of deceased contributors amounted to £1,164 12s. 5d.

One contributor, who was retired on reaching the age-limit, elected to accept a refund of his contributions under section 38, in lieu of a retiring-allowance. Refunds of contributions under section 32 (ee), by reason of the death of contributors while in the Public Service, and who were entitled to compensation from the Consolidated Fund, amounted to £1,114 8s. 6d. during the year. Payments under section 32 (f), balance of compensation and contributions less amount of retiring-allowance received, amounted to £2,492 15s. 10d.

Six contributors were transferred to other funds in accordance with provisions of section 48 of the Amendment Act of 1908, and their contributions, amounting to £21 6s. 5d., were accordingly transferred to such other funds. The salaries of the staff (excluding that of the Secretary, paid out of the Consolidated Fund, as provided under section 25 of the Act) and other office expenses were £814 and £145 6s. 3d. respectively. Legal expenses (Crown Law Office opinions) amounted to £3 13s. 6d., and medical fees for reports under section 36 to £64 10s. The travelling-expenses of the elected members of the Board amounted to £49 2s. 6d., and election expenses to £17 4s. The total outgo for the year was £65,169 9s. 10d.

From the 1st January, 1912, all receipts and payments have been made through the Post Office Account, with periodical transfers of balances to the Public Trustee's common fund. Under this arrangement the charges hitherto made by the Public Trustee were abolished entirely, and the only expense in this connection is a payment of £50 per annum to the Post Office—a net saving exceeding £700 a year.

Net Revenue.—The total for the year was £81,819 19s. 11d.

Accumulated Funds.—These amounted at the end of the year to £423,556.

Balance-sheet.—On the 31st December the total assets of the fund, which include provision for the outstanding accounts, amounted to £433,431. The balance-sheet appended gives full particulars as to the assets and liabilities.

The large amount of interest accrued, £12,541 15s. 6d., arises from the new arrangement of placing the moneys in the common fund of the Public Trust Office, as explained in last year's report. On the 1st April in each year the total amount of interest accrued to the end of the financial year is capitalized.

General.—An amendment of the law under which the fund is administered was passed during the last session of Parliament, abolishing the provision for reduction or postponement of allowances to widows and children in cases where compensation is paid under the Workers' Compensation Act for the death of a contributor by accident. The new law came into operation from the date of its passage. Two widows and two children, whose allowances had been deferred previously, became entitled to payment as from that date.

The Government Actuary, Morris Fox, Esq., in his report on the actuarial examination of the fund for the first triennium, recommended that the Government subsidy be increased from £23,000 to £48,000 per annum during the current triennium. By the amending Act mentioned above parliamentary sanction was given to the increased payment as from the 1st January, 1913. The increase in the subsidy was necessitated through officers retiring, with service for which they had paid no contributions, the basis of the scheme being that the Government should pay for these pensions except in so far as they were provided for by the members' contributions. The matter was, however, fully dealt with in the Actuary's report.
