

RETURN OF NON-FATAL ACCIDENTS IN CONNECTION WITH MACHINERY, ETC.—continued.

Name and Address of Owner.	Description of Machinery.	Name and Age of Person Injured.	Date of Accident.	Nature of Injury.	Cause of Accident, and Remarks.
Colonial Sugar-refining Company (Limited), Auckland	Driving-gear	G. Ehrke ; 32 years	31/10/17	Fingers injured	Ehrke was filling an oil-cup near the spur-wheels when he inadvertently placed his right hand on the wheels and had two fingers crushed.
A. and T. Burt (Limited), Dunedin	Drilling	Chris Boddy ; 17 years	5/11/17	Arm injured	While engaged drilling the sleeve of Boddy's coat was caught in the machine ; his right arm was drawn in and bruised.
Ross and Glendinning (Limited), Dunedin	Carding	John Anderson ; 50 years	6/11/17	Wrist injured	Anderson inadvertently put his left hand between the arm of a wheel and the guard and had his wrist severely crushed.
Kearsley Wool Scouring Company (Limited), Otehunga	Wool scouring	H. Gates ; 20 years	7/11/17	Arm injured	Gates had his arm fractured through having it caught by the belt of the machine.
Robert Holt and Sons, Napier	Sawmill	Jack Griggs ; 16 years	12/11/17	Arm and leg injured	Griggs was adjusting the belting on a small pulley, while in motion, with a piece of rope ; it somehow got entangled on the pulley and drew him on to it ; he was carried round shafting several times and had his arm badly smashed and a leg injured.
Murray Creek Gold-mining Company, Reefton	Ore crushing	H. N. Stuart, 20 years	15/11/17	Back and leg injured	When putting belt on pulley a stud in the shaft-collar caught Stuart's shirt and drew him on to the shaft ; he was taken round by it and received injuries to his back and his leg.
J. Wilkie and Co., Dunedin	Varnishing	John Holgate ; 46 years	24/11/17	Arm injured	Holgate was adjusting the gripper when he accidentally got his right arm caught in it and had it crushed.
Woolston Tanneries (Limited), Christchurch	Circular saw	William Vaughan ; 30 years	26/11/17	Hand injured	Vaughan slipped and his right hand came in contact with the saw, and he had it cut.
Murray's Limited, Underwood	Automatic press	Emily McPhail ; 16 years	26/11/17	Finger injured	When attempting to work machine McPhail placed her right hand under the die ; the machine started and took off the top of one of her fingers.
Aulsebrook and Co., Christchurch	Staying	Jean Forbes ; 15 years	27/11/17	Fingers injured	Forbes's fingers were drawn in to the rollers and were squeezed.
Wilson's Portland Cement Company (Limited), Warkworth	Crushing and grinding	Ernest Clarke ; 30 years	28/11/17	Head injured	Clarke was putting a belt on a moving pulley when it overlapped and broke ; the end of the belt was caught by the shaft, and the end of it with the fasteners on it struck him on the head and inflicted two scalp-wounds.
George Poole and Sons, Invercargill	Planing	R. Pedlar ; 17 years	30/11/17	Fingers lost	Pedlar's left hand slipped while he was planing a piece of timber ; it came into contact with the knives of the machine and had four fingers severed.
C. H. Furness (Limited), Auckland	Electric lift	William Walsh ; 16 years	4/12/17	Arm injured	Through inattention Walsh had his arm crushed against the floor and cage.
Ross and Glendinning (Limited), Dunedin	Cloth-cutting	H. Alexander ; 35 years	8/12/17	Finger injured	Alexander allowed the first finger of his left hand to come into contact with the endless knife, losing tip of finger.
Alexander Harvey and Sons (Limited), Auckland	Cannister trimmer	Myrtle Sorenson ; 17 years	14/12/17	Fingers injured	When reaching over her machine the first and second fingers of Sorensen's left hand were caught in the wheel and the tips taken off.
Phoenix Company (Limited), Dunedin	Wire stitching	Amy Thornton ; 32 years	9/1/18	Finger injured	Through Thornton misplacing her right hand the wire stitch pierced the point of the forefinger and took the nail off.
Waikou Valley Dairy Company, Te Aroha West	Dried milk	Paul Kotara ; 20 years	15/1/18	Foot injured	Kotara slipped when working the machine ; his foot was caught by the cogs, causing injury to his heel.
H. Grange, Newmarket	Crosscut saw	V. Beaver ; 25 years	21/1/18	Thumb injured	When working at saw Beaver accidentally drew his hand across the saw and had his thumb cut.
Phoenix Company (Limited), Dunedin	Slotting	Myrtle Irvine ; 16 years	29/1/18	Finger injured	While working machine Irvine accidentally got her finger crushed by part of it.