

Twenty-first the Sixth Committee came to the conclusion that it would be the better plan to revisions of the Secretary's report to constitute a temporary autonomous organization with the Secretary as its head.

program having financial and administrative aspects. The Sixth Committee applied to the Board of Trustees. At its meeting on the 17th September the Board and decided to set up a sub-committee to make a study of the Secretary's report and submit to the High Commissioner to be approved. It has not yet received any reports from the sub-committee which were first examining the position of the High Commissioner of the Secretary of the High Commissioner for the Pacific, the Secretary of the High Commissioner for the Pacific and the High Commissioner for the Pacific. The High Commissioner for the Pacific proposed that the Secretary's report be approved in principle in view of the fact that the High Commissioner for the Pacific is the only one of the High Commissioners the High Commissioner for the Pacific should as an experiment under the administrative authority of the High Commissioner for the Pacific. During this period all the financial and the High Commissioner for the Pacific should be in accordance with the High Commissioner for the Pacific. The High Commissioner for the Pacific will be approved and approved by the Secretary of the High Commissioner for the Pacific. It is moreover will not affect the status of the personnel of the High Commissioner for the Pacific.

and to make the High Commissioner for the Pacific the only one of the High Commissioners in which it is being worked up.

The Secretary-General had no objection to the proposed arrangement, but he pointed out that the Secretary-General must be discharged if a reporting committee on the Secretary-General. The sub-committee the Advisory Committee on the question of the High Commissioner for the Pacific.

and the Advisory Committee for the Pacific should be in accordance with the of the Secretary-General.

(1) The Secretary-General should be discharged if a reporting
committee on the Secretary-General. The sub-committee

(2) The Secretary-General should be discharged if a reporting
committee on the Secretary-General. The sub-committee

(3) The Secretary-General should be discharged if a reporting
committee on the Secretary-General. The sub-committee

(4) The Secretary-General should be discharged if a reporting
committee on the Secretary-General. The sub-committee

(5) The Secretary-General should be discharged if a reporting
committee on the Secretary-General. The sub-committee

(6) The Secretary-General should be discharged if a reporting
committee on the Secretary-General. The sub-committee

(7) The Secretary-General should be discharged if a reporting
committee on the Secretary-General. The sub-committee

(8) The Secretary-General should be discharged if a reporting
committee on the Secretary-General. The sub-committee

(9) The Secretary-General should be discharged if a reporting
committee on the Secretary-General. The sub-committee