FINAL REPORT.

I HAVE the honour to report that the Labour Bills Committee, consisting of ten members, has during the session held eight meetings. Two Bills and two petitions were referred to the Committee, all of which were carefully considered, and have been reported upon to the House.

7th November, 1931.

A. E. JULL, Chairman.

SPECIAL REPORT.

I HAVE the honour to report that the members of the Labour Bills Committee desire to place on record their keen appreciation of the ability, tact, and unfailing courtesy manifested by its Chairman, Mr. A. E. Jull, in the conduct of the business of the Committee. It is further desired that this resolution be reported to the House.

H. T. ARMSTRONG, Member of the Committee.

10th November, 1931.

SPECIAL REPORT.

THE members of the Labour Bills Committee desire to record their appreciation of the assiduous and capable manner in which the Clerk, Mr. Llewellyn Meredith, has carried out the duties of his office during the session. They further desire that this resolution be reported to the House.

A. E. JULL, Chairman.
