

No.	Name of Grant and date of Grant.	Extent and Situation.	For what purpose or for what service granted.	Whether the Grant be absolute or whether the land returns to the Crown in event of the Grant not being carried out.
62	Reserved by the Agent of the Canterbury Association, 1851	direct line, thence proceeding by a line South <math>61\frac{1}{2}</math> East, about 57 chains 60 links to a point in Port Levy, and from thence following the Coast line round by Adderly Head to the commencing point in Simeon Bay. 2530 acres, commencing at the Western corner of reserve No. 61, in Simion Bay, thence following along the Coast line to the North-Eastern corner of Section No. 229a in Camp Bay, thence following along the Eastern and Southern boundaries of the said Section 229a to the South-Western corner thereof, thence in a line due South 35 chains, thence in a direct line <math>173\frac{1}{2}</math> chains to the North-Eastern corner of Section 244, in Port Levy, thence following along the Western Coast of Port Levy to the South-Eastern corner of reserve No. 61, and returning along the South-Western boundray line of the said reserve to the commencing point in Simeon Bay.	Reserve for landing Diseased Sheep, &c.	Absolute
63	Reserved by the Agent of the Canterbury Association, 1852	16 perches, bounded on the North by the Heathcote River Road, 33 links, on the East by the Bridle Road to the New Ferry, on the South by unappropriated land, 150 links, and on the West by section No. 8, 162 links	Heathcote Ferry Reserve	ditto
63a	ditto	— 24 perches, bounded on the North by the Heathcoté River Road, 167 links, on the East by the Bridle Road to Hughes' Ferry, on the South by unappropriated land, 110 links, and on the West by the Bridle Road to the New Ferry	ditto	ditto
64	ditto 1851	5 acres, situated at Papanui, bounded on the North-East by the Papanui and Harewood Road, 8 chains 40 links, on the North-West by rural section No. 323, 12 chains 84 links, and on the South-East by rural section No. 151, 15 chains 34 links	Church of England Reserve	ditto
65	ditto 1851	5 acres, situated between Gebbie's Flat and Governors' Bay, being bounded on the East and North-East by the road from Gebbie's Flat to Lyttelton, about 23 chains from the Eastern boundary of section 232, measured along the road, on the North-West by a line $6\frac{1}{2}$ chains, and on the South-West by a line of 10 chains, meeting at a right angle at the Western corner of the reserve.	ditto	ditto
66	ditto 1851	5 acres, situate in Governor's Bay, Port Victoria, commencing at a point on the road round the head of the harbour, half a chain from where the said road crosses the	ditto	ditto