

103. Committees not to sit during sittings of the House.
104. Quorum.
105. Chairman.
106. Examination of witnesses, how to be conducted.
107. Chairman to sign report.
108. Lists, &c., of Committees to be posted up.
109. Power to call for persons and papers.
110. Time for bringing up report.
111. Proceedings on presentation of report.
112. Motion for adoption of report, &c.
113. Publication of proceedings of Committee.

PRIVATE BILLS.

114. Private Bills to be initiated by petition.
115. Petitions for Bills, when to be presented.
116. Public notice of intention to apply for Bill.
117. Notice for leave to introduce Bill.
118. Printing Bill.
119. Reference to Select Committees.
120. Petitions against Bill to be referred to same Committee.
121. Proceedings in Select Committee.
122. Bill when brought up, how to be proceeded with.

MESSAGES.

123. Reception of Message.
124. Reading of Message.
125. During reading, Members to be uncovered.

COMMUNICATIONS WITH THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

126. Bills and Messages—who may bring.
127. _____ Reception of.
128. _____ Transmission of.
129. Conferences.
130. Appointment of Members to convey message.
131. House Committees for joint comfort and convenience.
132. Copies of Returns required by Legislative Council.
133. Members of Legislative Council to have access to Journals.

JOINT REGULATIONS FOR FINAL PASSING OF BILLS.

134. Practice on Bill being agreed to by both Houses.
135. Consideration of amendments proposed by the Legislative Council.
136. If amendments agreed to.
137. If amendments rejected, or referred to conference.
138. Engrossing and presentation of Bill.
139. Certificate of Governor's assent to custody Acts.

STRANGERS.

140. Admission to body of the House.
141. Strangers may be ordered to withdraw.

CONTEMPT.

142. Non-compliance with call of the House.
143. Absence without leave.
144. Disobedience to order of the House, or interruption of proceedings.
145. Punishment of contempt.
146. Application of fines.

SUSPENSION OR ALTERATION OF STANDING ORDERS.

147. Suspension of Standing Orders.
148. Alteration or annulling of any Standing Order.

ELECTION PETITIONS.

149. To be addressed to the House.
150. To whom to be delivered and when.
151. Bond for prosecution of petition.
152. Transmission of petition to Clerk of the House.
153. Communication of petition to the House.
154. Petition to state ground of objection.
155. Service of copy on party petitioned against.

HEARING ELECTION PETITIONS.

156. Standing Committee on Election petitions.
157. Select Committee for consideration of petitions.
158. Failure to prosecute petition.
159. Petitioner—how to appear before Committee.
160. Petitioner to furnish list of votes claimed or objected to.
161. Defence of sitting Member.
162. Only claims and objections, of which due notice given, to be entertained.
163. Lists of objections and claims open to inspection.
164. Scrutiny, how to be effected.