TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1874.

[No. 18.]

Stolen.

STOLEN, from the dwelling of George Brough, French Farm Bay, Akaroa, between 10 p.m. Sunday, the 16th, and 5 p.m. Saturday, the 22nd August, 1874, a gentleman's Colonial gold ring, flat on top, has been broken and roughly mended, shows file marks on the inside; value £2. Identifiable. Frederick Cooper, English, 28 years, 5ft. 6in., dark complexion, reddish cheeks, dark hair, whiskers, and moustache, chin shaved, dark eyes, slender build, generally wears an Inverness cape, is suspected. He is identical with the Frederick Cooper referred to in Otago Police Gazette, 31st March, 1874, page 17, and requires Police surveillance, as he is suspected of several petty thefts, and the property described in the Otago Police Gazette might be found in his possession. He passed through Little River on the 27th August, en route for Christchurch, riding an old brown horse.

STOLEN, from the person of Charles Hawker, while asleep in the skittle-alley of the Albion Hotel, Lyttelton, between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. on the 29th August, 1874, a lady's gold Geneva watch, open-faced, gold dial, steel hands, number or maker's name unknown; and a long gold chain, small links, broken in the middle; value £8. Identifiable.

STOLEN, at Templeton, during the night of the 28th August, 1874, two wheels and a coulter of a Hornsby plough, the property of William Jarvis; coulter identifiable. Haman Smart, 41 years, 5ft. 7in., stout build, fair hair, whiskers, and moustache, dressed in a light blouse, cord trousers, and billycock hat, still in Templeton, is suspected.

STOLEN, between 5 p.m. 25th and 9 a.m. 28th August, 1874, from the yard of Mr. R. Maples, Armagh Street west, about eleven dozen of wine and beer bottles. Not identifiable. John Jebson, 25 years, 5ft 5in., stout build, fair hair, dressed in an old tweed suit; and — Brammy, 26 years, 5ft. 7in., stout build, dark complexion, dressed in black coat and trousers, are suspected; still in Christchurch.

STOLEN, from the person of William Falloon, about 8.30 p.m. on the 31st August, 1874, a brown leather pocket-book, containing six £1 notes, bank or numbers unknown, each with Falloon's name upon it. Identifiable. Lee Wade, 48 years, 5ft. 5in., stout build, fresh complexion, pockpitted, a groom, dressed in light tweed suit and light Yankee hat, still in Christchurch, is suspected. This is considered a doubtful case.

STOLEN, from the shop of Mr. James Payne, bootmaker, Whately Road, at 4.45 p.m. on
