

NEW ZEALAND GOVERNMENT GAZETTE.

PROVINCE OF CANTERBURY.

POLICE DEPARTMENT.

Published by direction of His Honor the Superintendent.

All Public Notifications which appear in this Gazette, with any Official Signature, are to be considered as Official Communications made to those persons to whom they may relate, and are to be obeyed accordingly.

By His Honor's Command,

WALTER KENNAWAY,

Provincial Secretary.

VOL. IX.]

MONDAY, MAY 1, 1871.

[No. 5.

Stolen.

STOLEN during the evening of the 10th ult., from Leithfield, a bay mare, 5 years old, branded like \surd on near shoulder, white star on forehead, the property of James Pokelly, of Leithfield.

ABOUT the end of December, 1870, was stolen from the Creek Station, Rangitata, the property of William Bush, a dark bay gelding, very quiet, aged, $14\frac{1}{2}$ hands high, small star on forehead, branded T O on near shoulder, with a small round lump close to frog on near hind foot, the effect of staking.

DURING the passage of the s.s. Gothenburg from Dunedin to Wellington, a case the property of Wm. Brass, Christchurch, was broken open, and the following articles, all identifiable, abstracted:—Three drab clipper corsets, 10 yards drab silk velvet, 6 shepherd's plaid shawls.

STOLEN, on the 14th ult., from the Ulster boarding-house, Christchurch, a leather pocket book, containing thirty-six sovereigns, and three one pound notes, the property of Joseph Florance. An Italian named Frank Trowler is suspected, described as 32 years of age, 5ft. 4in. in height, stout build, fresh complexion, black hair, whiskers and moustache; dresses in a brown cloth suit, a black cap with French peak. The suspected man, who is still in Christchurch, was searched but without success.

DURING the evening of the 14th ult., the dwelling-house of Elizabeth Mortimer, Ferry Road, was burglariously entered during the absence of the owner, and the following articles stolen:—An English silver lever watch, open face, white dial, steel hands, No. 5778, the letters W C scratched on the back; a colonial gold ring, set with six diamonds and four opals, one of the opals missing—both identifiable.

STOLEN from the person of Henry Eagle, of Smithfield, near Temuka, while lying asleep during the night of the 1st ult., in the Royal Hotel, Temuka, two £10 notes of the Union Bank of Australia issue. Eagle had the money on his person when he went to sleep, after drinking heavily, and on waking in the morning, found that it had been stolen. John Curtis, suspected, description:—An Englishman, 25 years of age, 5ft. 6 or 7in. in height, fair hair and complexion, no whisker, beard, or moustache. Curtis resides in Temuka.

STOLEN during the evening of the 7th ult., at Akaroa, from the person of Richard Berry, a silver lever hunting watch, the letters JB conjoined, scratched on the outside case. Berry was drinking with a number of strangers in an hotel when he discovered his loss. The watch is valued at £7.