Vol. X.]

MONDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1872.

[No. 12.]

Stolen.

STOLEN, from G L. Beath & Co., between the 20th and 30th October, 1872, 5 pairs grey Geelong tweed trousers, and 4 double-breasted vests to match, dark stripes up the trousers; 5 black venetian cloth sac coats, men's sizes. These articles were stolen from two cases of drapery in transit from Melbourne to Christchurch.

STOLEN, from behind the bar of the Zetland Arms Hotel, Cashel Street, a brown wooden box, about 4 x 4, containing three single notes, bank or number not known; one English sovereign, two half-sovereigns, and about two pounds in silver, mostly shillings, and some threepenny pieces—box identifiable. Francis Forden is suspected of this: age 40, 5ft. 2in., stout build, dark hair and whiskers, dirty appearance, dressed in dirty tweed suit and billycock hat.

STOLEN, from the person of Mr. Edward Wakefield, between 11 p.m. 8th and 2 a.m. 9th November, 1872, a black morocco pocket-book, lined with scarlet leather, containing letters addressed to Mr. Wakefield, a passage ticket by the s.s. Phabe, one £5 note, and one or two £1 notes—pocket-book and papers identifiable.

STOLEN, from the person of Robert Dickie, at Robertson's Hotel, Waikari, during the night of the 18th inst., two £1 notes—not identifiable. Peter Andrews and Andrew McGregor suspected, the former an Englishman, 40 years, 5ft. 6in. or 7in., slight build, dark whiskers, mixed with grey, chin shaved, dressed in moleskin trousers and dark tweed coat; the latter a Scotchman, about 50 years, 5ft. 7in. or 8 in., stout build, white hair and beard, dressed in moleskin trousers and dark tweed coat—supposed to have gone towards Christchurch.

STOLEN, from a little girl named Collinson, about 5 p.m. on the 14th November, 1872, a cheque on the Bank of New Zealand, for £1 10s., signed W. Morton, payable to bearer. The cheque was passed to Messrs. Dartnall & Co., High Street, by a woman about 35 years of age, thin build, respectable appearance, and has since been paid into the bank.

STOLEN, from Rangiora, on the 26th November, 1872, between the hours of 2 p.m. and 5 p.m., a bay mare, saddle and bridle, the property of Mr. Henry Perrott, of Ashley Bank, mare branded something like W on near shoulder, fore and hind feet on near side white, two or three white streaks on belly from girth galls; 1 snaffle-bridle with stitched noseband and single rein, nearly new; saddle, with hogskin seat, and plain small stirrup irons, hide girth of four plaited strands—all identifiable.
