APPEAL FOR BEQUESTS

Is there any cause more worthy of bequests by public-spirited citizens than the objectives of the Forest and Bird Protection Society, which is working wholly and solely for the welfare of New Zealand, present and future? Here is a suggested form of bequest:—

"I give and bequeath the sum of to the Forest and Bird Protection Society of New Zealand (Incorporated), and I declare that the receipt of the Treasurer for the time being of the said Society shall be a complete discharge to my executors, for the legacy hereby given to such Society."

OBJECTS OF THE SOCIETY

To advocate and obtain efficient protection of our native forests and birds and the preservation of sanctuaries, and scenic and other reserves, in their native state, and to enlist the practical sympathy of both young and old in these objects.

The Society invites all those who realise the great economic and aesthetic value of our native birds, and who wish to preserve our unrivalled scenic beauties, to band together with it to carry out these objects.

The subscriptions are: Life Member £15; Endowment Members £1; Ordinary Members 10s.; Junior Members (under 17 or at school) 5s. per annum. Endowment Members are those who desire to contribute in a more helpful manner towards the preservation of our birds and forests. This magazine is issued quarterly to all members without charge.

The Forest and Bird Protection Society of New Zealand (Inc.) is:—

- Convening and Secretarial Member of Nature Protection Council of New Zealand.
- National Section of the International Committee for Bird Preservation.
- Member of the International Union for Conservation of Nature and Natural Resources.
