

SUBSCRIBE TO TE KAEA!!

You save yourself money and a trip to the shops (as well as possible disappointment when you get there) with a subscription to the new Maori magazine. We are offering a special discount to those readers who take advantage of the coupon below. Just fill it in and send it off to us with a cheque or postal note. Your copies will then be delivered direct to your home.

Te Kaea is the perfect gift for friends and relatives too — especially if they are living overseas. As each copy arrives it is a renewed reminder that you are thinking of them. And it's the only way to keep up with what's going on in the Maori world.

5-copy subscription $5.00 (overseas $7.50)
 10-copy subscription $10.00 (overseas $15.00)
 These rates include postage and packing.

A NEW PERSPECTIVE

Patricia Burns

This unbiased, comprehensive, 90,000 word biography of one of the most famous Maori chiefs is a fascinating work of major historical importance.

Dr Burns has challenged the popular picture of this warrior chief, stripping away many of the myths and showing him to be a man of many parts, as skilled in the arts of peace as of war.

FORTHCOMING:

The Dream Sleepers and other stories.

Stories of tension, transition and change; of the contrasts between young and old; city and country, modern and traditional; of what it means to be a Maori in a society whose predominant values are alien; above all, elegant, evocative stories displaying the depth and range of Patricia Grace's talent.
