

Mrs. Sheridan, late matron of Te Puke Maternity Cottage Hospital, has now, after three months' holiday, taken the matronship of the Te Araroa Cottage Hospital.

Nurses Mina Watson and Runciman, of the Auckland Hospital, have been appointed sisters in the Dunedin Hospital.

Miss Stothart has resigned the matronship of the Rawene Hospital, and Sister Ruth Smith, who recently returned from active service, was appointed to the position.

Sister Janet Moore, A.R.R.C., one of the first 50 nurses on active service, has been appointed to the staff of the Public Health Department, and is now engaged in giving a course of lectures and demonstrations in home nursing to a large number of members of the Women's National Reserve in Wellington. Sister Moore will later be stationed in Dunedin.

Sister Ruth Mirams holds a similar position in Auckland, and is kept very busy.

Sister Elsie McAllum has been appointed also to the Public Health staff, and will take up her duties in July, and will be stationed in Wellington.

Sister Ethel Taylor, who has been on active service since April, 1915, has been appointed native health nurse for Te Karaka, vice Sister Jean Cormack, who has resigned on account of her approaching marriage.

Sister Mabel Pownall, of Otaki Sanatorium, who has been acting as matron of the hospital and sanatorium during Miss Sealy's absence on sick leave, has been promoted to the position of sub-matron.

Miss McNab, who has been matron of the Cottage Hospital at Waiutu for several years, has been appointed matron of the Masterton Hospital, succeeding Miss Wilkinson, whose resignation was announced in our last issue.

Sister Crawford, the senior sister who was acting matron for some months, has now resigned from the staff of the Masterton Hospital.

Sister Winifred White, A.R.R.C., who returned some months ago from active service on the staff of the hospital ship Marama, has returned to her private hospital in Masterton. Sister Blair, who was in charge during part of Miss White's absence, has now resigned.

Miss Violet Ring, trained at St. Helens Hospital, Christchurch, has been appointed St. Helens district midwife at Greymouth, and commenced her duties on July 1st. Unfortunately she has been called urgently to America to her sister there, and will be away for six months, leaving in the Moana at the end of the month.

Nurse Hight, also trained at St. Helens, Christchurch, will act as locum for the period of Nurse Ring's absence.

Nurse Roulstone, who was very ill with pneumonic influenza, contracted from the patients off the mine-sweepers, is now convalescent.

Miss Janet Moore has been acting as matron at Somes Island quarantine station.

Nurse Edith Buckley, late of the Auckland Hospital staff, has been appointed matron of the Lithgow District Hospital, New South Wales.

Miss Hooker, home sister, Wellington Hospital, recently resigned that appointment, which she was temporarily holding during the absence of Sister Pengelly on active service, and has been appointed matron of the Anglican Orphanage at Papatotoi, Auckland.

Sister Pengelly returned on the "Marama."

Miss Smart has been acting as matron at Motuhi quarantine station.

Miss Giffney, has, at the urgent request of the Bay of Islands Hospital Board, consented to remain at Kawakawa as matron, and has therefore cancelled her appointment as public health nurse.
