

A wedding took place on Wednesday morning, at Trinity Congregational Church, Worcester Street, the contracting parties being William G. Wilson, son of Mr. E. J. Wilson, St. Albans, to Amelia J. Franklin (Nurse), second daughter of Mr. G. E. Franklin, also of St. Albans. The Rev. G. E. Moore, M.A., officiated. The church was prettily decorated by girl friends of the bride. The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, looked beautiful in a charming gown of white crepe-de-chine over pale silk daintily trimmed with pearls and lace. Her veil, which was exquisitely embroidered, was made in mop-cap style, with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of choice white flowers. The bridesmaid, Kathleen M. Franklin, sister of the bride, was very winsome in a frock of white georgette over pink satin, embroidered in heliotrope and mauve. Her hat was of cream straw lined with pink crepe-de-chine ornamented with pink mauve and heliotrope flowers, and she carried a bouquet to match.

Mr. F. A. Wilson accompanied the bridegroom as best-man. Mr. Arthur Lilly, A.R.C.O., presided at the organ. After the ceremony an adjournment was made to the pretty residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. F. W. Kirk, Carlton Street, where the wedding breakfast was served in honour of the event. Later the bride and bridegroom left by motor for the South, the bride wearing a fawn costume and wine-coloured velour hat, also a handsome set of black fox furs, the gift of the bridegroom.

The following wedding was solemnized at St. David's Presbyterian Church, Khyber Pass Road, Auckland, on 24th September, at 2.30 p.m.

The bridegroom was Hamilton Walter Black (late N.Z.F.A.) youngest son of the late Walter and Emma Black, of Gisborne. The bride, Annette Julia Delugar, eldest daughter of John and Eleanor Delugar, of New North Road, Mount Albert, Auckland.

The marriage took place of Sister Nielsenn Jensen and Mr. William Chappell on Nov. 4th at the Kent Terrace Presbyterian Church. A reception was afterwards held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. McKenzie, at Lyall Bay.

The marriage of Sister Kittlety, lately returned from active service, to Mr. P. J. North, also a returned soldier (an officer of the Mounted Contingent in Egypt) took place in the Methodist Church, Pitt Street, Auckland, on October 18th.

Sister Jean Cormack, who, after returning from active service, resumed her Native Health work for a few months, is now married to Mr. Willis, a returned soldier, and is settled at Norsewood, Hawke's Bay, her husband having taken up farming in that district.

Sister Jennie Sinclair, who was a survivor of the "Marquette" disaster, was married in Christchurch to Mr. Teebre, a returned soldier, on October 6th.

Sister Elsy Curtis, 22/229, who until recently was attached to the staff of the Featherston Military Hospital, was married in July at Colyton, Feilding, to Mr. P. F. Brooks, of Ohingaite. The bride, who was given away by her brother just recently returned from the front, wore a frock of white voile, the bodice trimmed with filet lace, and had a deep lace skirt with a soft white satin belt, and veil and orange blossoms. She was attended by her sister, who wore white voile and a saxe-blue hat. The honeymoon was spent in Wanganui.

At 2.30 p.m., October 1st, Cora B. Anderson, R.R.C., third daughter of the late Mr. Wm. Anderson and Mrs. Anderson, of Remuera, was married to Mr. Eric B. Robertson, youngest son of the late Mr. John Robertson and Mrs. Robertson, of Remuera. The bride was in travelling costume of Irish tweed and dainty silk hat, she carried a posy of primroses and was attended by her sister, Miss Nan Anderson, who was dressed in pink voile with blue stitching, and who carried a bunch of pink and mauve sweet peas. The bridegroom was attended by Mr. George Chamberlain. The marriage took place in the house under a wedding-bell of flowers. The bride received many and very beautiful presents. Their home is to be in Stratford, Taranaki. They had a very fine day, and everything went off well. The guests were all relatives except two.
