

D.I.C. Brassieres—positively essential to wear with Jumpers!

The Jumper of to-day is an indispensable garment, not only because it is the fashion, but because of its immense utility as a garment also.

Just as indispensable is the Brassiere—it is a positive dress essential, and an adjunct to smart dressing that gains in popularity and indispensability each time it is worn. D.I.C. Brassieres are artistic garments, even the plainest of them; the more elaborate kinds—allover lace and the like, are most alluring.
