

State Examination of Maternity Nurses

The State Examination of Nurses took place on June 9th and 10th. One hundred and forty-two candidates sat, but the results are not yet to hand.

On May 5th the first Examination for Maternity Nurses under the Nurses and Midwives Regn. Act, 1925, was held. There were six candidates, all of whom were successful.

Wyatt, Rose Constance, R.N., St. Helen's Hospital, Auckland.

Baker, Olive K., R.N., St. Helen's Hospital, Gisborne.

Taine, Elaine, R.N., St. Helen's Hospital, Wanganui.

Moore, Winifred E., St. Helen's Hospital, Christchurch.

Buckton, Ivy, R.N., St. Helen's Hospital, Christchurch.

Summers, Josephine, R.N., St. Helen's Hospital, Christchurch.

Examination for the State Registration of Trained Maternity Nurses

MATERNITY NURSING.

5th May, 1926.

Time allowed: Three hours.

Candidates should give concise answers. All questions should be attempted, but first three MUST be answered.

1. What Ante Natal advice would you give a healthy woman three months pregnant?
2. What facts would lead you to suspect that labour was not proceeding in a normal manner?
3. What are the causes of Post Partum Hæmorrhage?
 - (a) What precautions would you take to prevent its occurrence?
 - (b) How would you treat the condition pending the arrival of the doctor?
4. How would you prepare a patient for Labour? What equipment is necessary?
5. What are the causes of a rash on the Buttocks of an infant?
 - (a) What nursing treatment would you suggest?
 - (b) How would you prevent the condition arising?
6. What are the essentials in the Aseptic management of the Puerperium?

