

ORANGE BLOSSOMS.

MASFEN-COURTAYNE.

WEDDING that was very quietly celebrated took placest St. Paul's Church on Thursday morning last, when Miss M. E. Courtayne, second daughter of the late Mr J P Courtayne, and granddaughter of the late Captain H D Courtayne, 57th Regiment, of Corteen Hall, Killarney, Ireland, was married to Mr F. H. Masfen, cousin of Mrs P. Comiskey, and son of Mr Masfen, of Staffordsbire, England.

THE Rev. C. M. Nelson performed the ceremony. The Misses Courtayne (two) were brideemaids. Mr W. Courtsyne gave his rister away, and Mr Allan O'Neil officiated best man. Among those present were Mrs Brun, Mrs Minnett, Miss Minnett, Mrs James Russell, and the Messrs Russell, Mrs Ponsonby Peacocke, Mrs Bruce, Mrs J. M. Fraser, Miss Brodie, and others.

THE bride were a nest gown of white muslin, hat to match, and the brideemaids were similarly attired. The wedding presents were numerous and well chosen, including some beautiful gifts, and also useful souvenirs in the shape of cheques and sovereigns-the latter being much in evi-

THE newly-wedded pair left immediately after the ceremony by the s.s. Rose Casey for Warkworth, where the hone; moon will be spent.

MCRAE-MURPHY.

On Saturday Miss Helen Murphy, second daughter of Mr Thomas Murphy, Spring Creek, Mar. barough, was married to Mr William McRae, also of Marlborough. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride by the Rev. Father Macasmara, and the whole affair was very quiet, only members of the family being present.

THE bride looked very handsome in a well-made gown of Gobstin blue corduroy cloth, with bands of passementerie harmonising perfectly with the colour of the dress. The bodice had a novel yoke of full coffee-coloured guipure lace, caught down with bands of the passementerie, and folds of the cloth finished off the front, and a lovely shower bouquet of delicate white blossoms completed a very becoming

THE going away dress, of fine thick navy serge, was plainly made tailor fashion, with coat bodice and outdoor coat with gigot sleeves, deep revers, and shoulder frill, and the hat of black fancy straw with handsome cetrich feathers, jet aigrettes, and bows of yellow ribbon shot with pale pink was most becoming. Mr and Mrs W. McRae left on Satur-day afternoon for Kaikoura driving overland, and thence to Amberley, where they will reside.

THE wedding presents were both handsome and useful, and included silver tea and coffee service, plate, clock, glassware, Japanese table, several cheques, etc., etc., which all testified to the popularity of the bride, who will be greatly missed by her numerous friends and neighbours, as well as by her immediate family circle.

WOOD - BULLOCK.

A VERY quiet wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon at Avoneide Church, Christchurch, the Rev. W. A. Pascoe officiating, when Mr Henry Wood, of Recerton, was married to Miss Margaret Bullock (Daisy), of Avonside. The bridegroom met with an accident a short time ago, and is still an invalid, having to use a crutch, as a small bone was broken in his foot, so there was no wedding party outside relations and very intimate friends.

THE bride looked very nice in her handsome gown of white bengaline silk, made with square train and draped with old lace across the front. The bodies was made without collar, and turned back with sofs talle, the barque edged with orange blossoms and a frill of the silk, and she carried a lovely bridal bouquet.

THE bridesmaids - Miss Bessie Bullock (chief) and Misses Mary Ballock and Sybil Meares-all wore shrimp pink crepon and silk, with hats, gloves, stc., to match, and carried beautiful bouquets of pink loses, and wore pearl initial broches, the gift of the bridegroom. Mrs Bullock was in a handsome black silk, with white lace on the bodice, and pink in her bonnet; Mrs W. D. Wood, a beautiful black corded silk with wavy design in satin, the bodies finished with cream guipure lace; Mrs C. Wood (Kaikonra), a charming gown of grey silk trimmed with velvet of a darker shade ; Mrs Walcot Wood, grey cashmere dress with pretty pink slik full bodies trimmed with Maltese lace; Mrs W. D Meares, very handsome brown silk and velvet with V bodice of cream crepe trimmed with gold passementerie, bonnet to match ; Mrs Pascos, a rich, petunia-coloured silk trimmed with black lace, bonnet to match; Mrs Malcolm Macfarlane, black silk with light vest, and pretty bonnet; Miss Kineey, salmon pink crepon with green shot velvet trimming, white hat with ostrich feathers, and a lovely bouquet of myrtle and white roses with maiden hair fern. Mr Peter Wood acted as lest man, Mr W. D. Wood, Mr Bullock, Measure W. Wood, C. Wood, D. and Walcot Wood, G. Bullock, Meares, and Macfarlane were the others pre-

MR WILLIE WOOD'S and Mr C. Wood's little daughters acted as flower girls, and looked very pretty in cream silk frocks and hate, with bronze shoes. They awaited the bridal party coming out of church, and then all adjourned to the residence of the bride's parents, where the usual toasts were honoured in champague, the cake cut and distributed, and the presents viewed.

THE bride's going away dress was very pretty-of lizard green shot with pink, light hat trimmed to match, and a handsome electric travelling clock, for-lined. The hanny pair departed by the 4 p m. train for the South, going by cary stages to the lakes and other places of interest, and are not expected back for two months.

WATKIN-THOMSON.

ONE of the prettiest weddings that has taken place in Rangitikei was celebrated at the Bulls Presbyterian Church on Wednesday. The bridegroom was Mr Leonard J. Watkin, whom many Auckland friends will remember as an old Grammar School boy and an art student, and who is now headmaster of the Fordell Public School. The bride was Miss Marie Thomson, fourth daughter of Andrew Thomson, E.o., of Bulls. The church was most artistically decorated with evergreens and white blossoms by the sisters and girl PRECISELY at 3 p.m. the bride entered the church, leaning on the arm of her father, while the choir gave out the sweet strains of the wedding bymn. The bride was tastefully robed in a white greakt sick, trained, and trimmed with Valenciennes, and wore a white embroidered net veil with sprays of orange blossoms. She carried a lovely shower bouquet, and wore a handsome gold and pearl brooch, both the gifts of the bridegroom.

THE six bridesmaids, three of whom were the bride's sisters, and three the bridegroom's, were attired in pretty cream ciepon dresses, two with cream trimining, two with and two with belietrope, wearing cream hats to match. Each one wore a pretty brooch, the gift of the bridegroom, and carried a shower bouquet of tints to harmonise with the costume.

THE ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr Doull, assisted by the Rev. W. J. Watkin, the father of the bridegroom. The path of the happy pair as they left the chuich through an avenue of well-wishers to enter their carriage, was strewn with flowers by the girls of the bride's Sanday school class, and smid showers of rice the pair drove to ' Woodbine,' the residence of the bride, where a reception was held. In the evening, followed by showers of rice and good wishes, the happy couple left for Wanganui, en route for Auckland, where they intend spending their boneymoon. The wedding presents were numerous and handsome.

COMING EVENTS

A CHOICE and VARIED SELECTION of WEDDING, INVITA-TION, CALL, VISITING, MENU, and other CARDS. Get your Club's Printing done artistically in the latest Continental and American styles.

All Orders (town or country) receive prompt attention, and are charged at the lowest possible remunerative rates.

ADDRESS: MANAGER-CRAPHIC OFFICE, AUCKLAND.

Soriety Gossip.

AUCKLAND.

DEAR BEE.

JANUARY 30.

DEAR BEE,

Warm as the weather is we are kept from absolutely baking by a breeze which blows from various quarters, but nanages to cool the afr somewhat.

The weather just now in Auckland is exceptionally suited for outdoor entertainments, that is on the days when it does not rain, and slwsys provided that one is guest and not host. The latter polition involves too quote exercition for most people. One of the smart parties recently spoiled by heavy rain, was that given by of the French warshin. Out of three hundred invitations, only about thirty weather proof guests put in an appearance.

Mrs Conolly, of Remuera, gave

A LARGE GARDEN PARTY

mrs Conolly, of Remuera, gave

Mrs Conolly, of Remuera, gave

Mrs Conolly, of Remuera, gave isst Therday at her beautiful residence over-looking Hobson's Rey, Auckland. The day was perfect, though King Sol did send flow, and the send that the send that Professor Brown gave a most enjoyable water pionic last week up the Auckland harbour to Luosa Creek, and on the way a short stay was made at Pine Island. The weather was simply delightful, just the day for picnicking.

Among these present we observed Mrs Macmil'an, olive greet; Mrs P. W. Thomas, old rose trimmed with white: Mrs Upton, grey tweed, brown hat; Mrs P. White: Mrs Upton, grey tweed, brown hat; Mrs P. White: Mrs P. W. Herbert of the black have bronded by the brown of the broken of the b blouse: Mrs Cheeseman, dark blue contume; Mrs Templar, all-gray costume.

A very pleasant evening's antertainment was enjoyed by the members and triends of St. John's Wesleysin Church. Ponsonby, on Tuesday last. Conveyed by the Devonport Forry Company's fine steamer losgic, a targe number of people were privileged to the steamer losgic, a targe number of people were privileged to a star of the steamer losgic, a targe number of people were privileged to the star of the s evidence, performing their various items with more or loss success.

Mrs Edwin Hesketh's, of '5t. John's Wood,'

TENNIS PARTY.

Our hostess wore a dark grey French sateen, with bands of black silk: Miss Hesketh looked well in a simple white gown, large hat with flowers; Miss M. Hesketh nowed well in a simple white gown, large hat with flowers; Miss M. Hesketh nowed well as a longer one, bale pink and white striped crinkley gown; Mr and Miss Brober, the link and white striped crinkley gown; Mr and Miss Brober, the Miss bound of the conflower blue twilled sateen; and a younger one, bale pink and white striped crinkley gown; Mr and Miss Brober, the Missource, and Miss Brober, the Missource, Miss Colbec, fawn tussore silk with missonette green; Mr and Mrs Colbec (Wellingloon), the latter in lat ender and white striped crinkley; Miss Little looked pretty in a bronze green with fawn lace; Miss Hossa Hull, brown holland, large sailor hat with red pheywood, white cambric, black hat; Mise M. Heywood, and the cambric, black hat; Mise M. Heywood, white sailor that with white battle gown, becoming picture hat with white ostrich feathers; Miss Whewell, blue and white striped gown; Miss Bill Hull, mode grey skirt, white pain striped gown; Miss Bill Hull, mode grey skirt, white son striped gown; Miss Bill Hull, mode grey skirt, white son bestiped gown; Miss Bill Hull, mode grey skirt, white son bestiped gown; Miss Bill Hull, mode grey skirt, white son bestiped gown; Miss Bill Hull, mode grey skirt, white son bestiped gown; Miss Bill Hull, mode grey skirt, white son bestiped gown; Miss Bill Hull, mode grey skirt, white son bestiped gown; Miss Bill Hull, mode grey skirt, white son bestiped gown; Miss Bill Hull, mode grey skirt, white son bestiped gown; Miss Bill, Hull, mode grey skirt, white son bestiped gown; Miss Bill Hull, mode grey skirt, white son bestiped gown; Miss Bill Hull, mode grey skirt, w epherd, etc. Ara Tromas Morrin is going to Sydney. Arand Mrs Cheeseman, of "Marunut, Remuers, have gone to slicke. Ara Thomson, Green Lane, Ellersile, has gone for three months

y at Orewa. Ethel Bull is staying at Wanganui.

DARBASE ON THE PLAOSHIP TAVIUM at the Regatta: Mrs Buil, stylish black slik with small stripe of orange and red, charming black bonnet, with green ribbons: Miss Bird lawis, back; the Wile; Mss Arthur Nathan, black serve;
Mrs lawis, back; the Yashibak, pretty fawn; Mrs Niccol, black serve, white vert, Mrs My Shabak, Miss Rookes, fawn naterial; Miss Roakes, white drill, Miss Shirley Baker, while drill, and her stater Alias Ella, blue drill; Mrs Growenor, fawn; Miss Roppes