NELSON.

DEAR BEE.

MARCH 4.

Last Saturday afternoon Judge and Mrs Robinson LARGE GARDEN PARTY

Last Saturday afternoon Judge and Mrs Robinson gave

Lagor Garden Party

at 'Ronaki.' The day was beautifully fine, and warm enough to allow one to sit under the trees and admire the pretty view.
Judge and Mrs Hobinson received their guests in the large entrance bail, Delicious tea. cakes of all descriptions, and fruit were served in the dining-room, and also on tables out of doors.
Judge and Mrs Hobinson for service and the blouse of black silk with manure spots trimmed with ribbons of the asme colour, stylish bonnet to match; Miss Rowley, pretty pink muslin blouse, dark kirt, sailor har. Amongst the many guests I noticed Mrs Mules, in black crepon, lace manties black bonnet with a touch of pink;
Mrs Schaders pretty grey costume: Mrs Howle, black irtimod bown. Mrs Hroad, grey and black striped silk lustre, black jet bonnet; Mrs Hroad, grey and black striped silk lustre, black jet bonnet; Mrs Hroad, grey and black striped silk lustre, black jet bown. Mrs Hroad, grey and black striped silk lustre, black jet bown. Mrs Hroad, grey and black striped silk lustre, black jet bonnet; Mrs Hroad, grey and black striped silk lustre, black jet bown. Mrs Hroad, grey and black striped silk lustre, black jet bonnet; Mrs Hroad, grey and black striped silk lustre, black jet black betrich feathers; Mrs Hoberts grey creen, yoke sand front of bodice of pale blue handsomely trimmed with steel passementurelly pretty ornibiation of black and white; Mrs J. Shapp, try tweed skirt and jacket, white blouse, toque to match; Mrs Vining, black gown, delicate cream lace flohu, large black hat;
trimmed with green velvet and black ostrich this; Mrs Howle, trimmide with green velvet and black ostrich this; Mrs Henwick illomheimi, black and grey striped silk lustre with black ribbon trimmings black bonnet; Mrs Hashy, handsome black crepon
trimmings black bonnet; Mrs Hashy, handsome black crepon
from the cream black hat; Mrs Richard and the silk blouse toque to mrs Howley black bonnet in the silk blouse trimmed with green topic silk lustre with

AT HOME.

then music, cards, and a new form of 'table turning' were in-ulged in, and thoroughly enjoyed by all present, who were Mes-ames Oldham, Stafford, Percy Adams, Thornton, Roberts, harp, Misses Pitt itwo, Curtis, Jones, Worsley, Oldham, Dr., toberts Mesers J. Sharp, Thornton, Oldham, Glasgow, Wither, unn, Percy Adamss, etc., etc.

OUR PROPLE.

Miss Agatha Catley has returned home after a long visit of over we years to England. Mrs Renwick is paying a round of visits amongst her friends, he are all delighted, to see her again. o are all delighted to see her again.

liss Higgins is giving up her position at the Girls College after ster. She will be very much missed.

PHYLLIS.

NAPIER.

DEAR BEE,

MARCH 2.

DEAR BEE,

Captain Forster. Clerk of the Court, was the recipient of two presentations prior to bis removal to Dunedin. Mr Turnbull, S.M., on behalf of those connected with the Courts and Police Department, presented a marble clock with silver plate, engraved, and also asked his acceptance of a silver watch and chain to be given to his son Frank. Captain Forster feelintly replied. Later in the afternoon is number of leading townsmen assembled at the Criterion Hotel for the purpose of bidding farewell to Captain Forster and presenting him with an address and family have gone to Dunedin, and Miss Furster has gone to Auckland to stay with her sister, Mrs Gooch.

A pleasant

SOCIAL

was hold at Stuart's Hall on Thursday, and about a hundred quest-spent the hours in music and dancing host agreeably. Miss Denholm was servering her connection as headmistress of the school, and during the evening she was called upon to receive a hundcome cut class cruet and sugar basin, silver mounted, sub-scribed for by the school children and parents. All those who apoke bore testimony to the sterling qualities of the young lady, whose work has always received favourable comment from the inspector. representative against Wellington has been the event of the week, and ideal weather was vouch-afed to this fixture. The pitch, I hear was A. I., and if the visitors were pleased, as I hear unfaished, but our representatives made a boil stand, and the play of Mossrs Luck (explain). Ludbrook, Staite, and Bruce calls for special comment. The Association generously allowed fadies free, and everyone could partake of attendon tea gratis, so the inducements to attend were great. Meadames Logan and Sainabury presided over the tea table on Friday afternoon, assisted by Misses Cotorill and Locke. Mrs. H. Luck, assisted by Misses trees and Heath, dispensed ten on Saturday to the thirsty multi-tude. It was impossible to see every one on the ground, but I have jotted down those who came within my gaze.

INTERPROVINCIAL CRICKET MATCH

DRESSES WORN AT WELLINGTON V. HAWKE'S BAY CRICKET MATCH.

Mrs G. Morria, hand-ome black crepon with satin blouse and cream lace collaratte; Misses by mock, crepon skirt-ring wearing a green surah blows, and her sister a blue. Mrs Fairlex Pengaran white parson; Mrs J. H. Coleman wore the richest costs ume on the lawn; it consisted of a Gobelin blue and black striped slik crepon trimmed with mode black lace and satin ribbon, dainly bonnet with pink roses; Miss Watt pink crepon, while hat and quillie; Mrs Nairn, black; Mrs J. W. Carlie, black with orange brown velvet: Mrs Kast, white: Miss Peake, white musins: Mrs Lower, grey crepon; Miss Lawry, blue broaded blouse; Miss Lower, grey crepon; Miss Lawry, blue throaded blouse; Miss Lower, grey crepon; Miss Lawry, blue throaded blouse; Miss Crepon, picture hat; Mrs F. Gordon, white pique; Miss K. Tanner, pretty white costume with black sash; Mrs Kinrose blue tigured ponges with white alik and in-sertion badice: the Misses Lyadon, light gowns; Mrs H. B. Lusk, white pione, white sailor hat with tulls and wings; Miss May Ross Gisborne, stylich blue with black moire sleeves and revers, picture hat; Mrs G. Marshall, tailor-inde, governwise, green with white with the sailor of the governwise, green with white stripes of the sailor of

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

ISABEL MURCHISON.-I hope you will see this acknowledgment of your kind contribution. Have you any more of that sort in your fertile brain? If so, I hope you will let us have the benefit of them.

ORANGE BLOSSOMS.

MR GIESEN TO MISS E. C. KNOWLES.

FASHIONABLE and pretty wedding was celebrated at St. John's Auglican Church last month when Miss Emma Constance Knowles, second daughter of Mr H. H. Knowles, of 'Makino,' Feilding, was united in the bonds of matrimony to Mr Walter Baxendale, fourth son of Mr Edward Giesen, also of Feilding.

THE ceremony took place at two o'clock in the afternoon, and for some time before that hour a large number of friends and onlookers congregated at the church, which, it may be mentioned, had been very prettily decorated by a number of friends of the bride. Amongst other decorations was a large arch of evergreens interspersed with marguerite daisies, which was erected at the steps of the chancel. By the time the bridal party arrived the church was filled, there being present a very large number of friends and relations of both families. who are well known and much respected in the district.

THE bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, looked very pretty in a handsome costume of white surah silk trimmed with chiffon and caught with sprays of myrtle, with the orthodox veil and orangeblossom; she carried an exquisite shower bouquet of white roses and myrtle, relieved with maiden hair ferns.

SHE was attended by six bridesmaids, namely, her three sisters, Miss and the Misses Ethel and Nina Knowles, Miss Giesen, Miss Lockett, and Miss Mac-These were followed by two pretty little children-Master Leonard Leary, dressed in an old English court dress of black velvet and lace, and Miss Ida Carey in a very pretty blue crepon dress. The bridesmaids all wore exceedingly pretty dresses of cream crepon trimmed with gold-coloured silk, with hats to match, and each carried shower bouquets of marguerite daisies, and wore gold brooches, the gift of the bridegroom. Mr P. Giesen acted as best man.

THE service was full choral, as both bride and bridegroom were members of St. John's Choir. The Rev. Iunis Jones conducted the impressive marriage ceremony. The 'Wedding March' was played by Miss Goodbehere, who presided at the organ. As the bridal party left the vestry they were preceded down the aisle and along the carpeted pathway to the gate by the two dear little children, who atrewed flowers before the happy couple.

THE guests-considerably over one hundred in number were hospitably entertained at 'Birnam,' Mount Stewart, the future home of Mr and Mrs Walter Giesen, by the parents of the bride and bridegroom, and two or three hours were most enjoyably spent in the pretty grounds surrounding the residence. A very pretty picture was that when all the guests were assembled on the lawn to drink the health of the bride and bridegroom, which was proposed by Mr C. L. Maclean in his happy and humorous manner. The toast was responded to by the bridegroom in a nest little speech. A photograph of the wedding-party was then taken, and shortly after 5 o'clock Mr and Mrs Giesen left for Palmerston, accompanied by showers of rice, flowers, and leather, and hearty good wishes for their future happiness and prosperity.

MRS GIESEN wore a travelling dress of fawn poplin trimmed with shot silk, hat to match.

THE following is a list of wedding presents, which were both valuable and handsome :-

THE following is a list of wedding presents, which were both valuable and handsome:—

Bridegroom to hide, carriag, and opessum rug: Mrs H. Knowles, silver Ish karife and fork: Mr H. Knowles, silver cruet; Mrs Giesen, choque: Mr H. Knowles, silver jam spoon and set dish mats: Miss Nina Knowles, wall ornament; Miss Ishel Knowles, isher jam spoon and set dish mats: Miss Nina Knowles, wall ornament; Miss Ishel Knowles, isher jam spoon and set dish mats: Miss Nina Knowles, wall ornament; Miss Ishel Knowles, isher jam spoon and set dish mats: Miss Nina Knowles, wall ornament; Mrs Ishelmen, Silver Mr H. Knowles, jam dishes; Mr J. Knowles, bracket; Mrs Knowles, isher jam shore and Miss Gieson, silver sold the state of the state of

FOR CHARITY'S SAKE.—In many of the smoking or coffee rooms of the English hotels, especially in large cities, there is on the mantel a box for contributions to some charity. On the top is a card on which is inscribed: 'Please give a penny, and it will thank you.' Drop a penny in the slot, and up comes another card, 'Thank you, sir,' is printed. It pleases the half-befuddled cheap swells immensely, for even automatic politeness has its effect.

To the Dear.—A Gentleman who cured himself of Deafness and Noises in the Head after fourteen years' suffering, will gladly send full particulars of the remedy post free.—Address. H. CLIPTON, Norfolk House, Norfolk Street, Strand, London, England.—(Advu.

E SOURCE

District Lands and Survey Office, Auckland, 8th February, 1896,

THE undermentioned clumps of dead timber, situated in the Puhipuhi State Forest, will be offered for sale by Public Auc-tion at this office, on Tuesday, 7th April, 1896, at 11 o clock a.m.;

Lot. Number of Approximate Upset Price.

		Kauri,	£		Ć
1.	243	486,000	182	5	C
Ž.	575	2,147,000	806	2	6
ã.	686	2,053,000	806 773	12
ă	29 (556,000	208 1	ĹΘ	6
1. 2. 3. 4. 5.	686 283 796	4,776,000	1.791	ō	ō
χ.	559	1,118,000	419	5	Ď
6. 7.	559 161	483,000	181	ž	6
		Totara.		-	_
	28	70(4)4	28	0
8. 9. 11. 12.	28 42 82 42		28 42	Ö
	62	_	25	ŏ
11,	82	Ξ	82 42	ŏ
12.	42	_	42	u

CONDITIONS OF SALE,—One half of the purchase money to be paid on the fall of the hammer, the balance to be paid within twelve months. Timber to be removed within three years from date of sale. Plans cas be seen and obtained at this office, at the County Office, Whangarel, and Post Offices Whangarel, and Post Offices Whangarel, and Kawakawa.

The railway rate for carriage of kauri timber on Whakapara to Whangarei, will be is 3d or 100 superficial feet.

G RHARD MUELLER.
Commissioner of Crewn Lands.