

AUCKLAND.

DEAR BES.

NOVEMBER 23.

It has been such a busy week, and yet I have not much to tell you, as I am requested not to give you one or two very pleasant items which I had jotted down. There was an excellent attendance at the

THIRD ANNUAL CHILDREN'S FLOWER SHOW

TRIED ANNUAL CRILDREN'S FLOWER SHOW

On Friday and Saturday. There were about a hundred more exhibite than last year, and the committee and judges deserve great judged the products of the children's industry during the last six months. The gardens, cultivated entirely (so said the rules) by children, were inspected early in the week, many being pronuncial societies. The Choral Hall looked very pretty, a fountain being in the centre and Mr f. Cran well's lovely speciment fernery at one end. His Worship the Mayor Li, J. Holiand, Esq.) opened the show in a short speech at 2.0. There was no tes, or afternory at one end. His Worship the Mayor Li, J. Holiand, Esq.) opened the show in a short speech at 2.0. There was no tes, or afternory at one end. His Worship the Mayor Li, J. Holiand, Esq.) opened the show in a short speech at 2.0. There was no tes, or afternor would have been a boon to many. A thongest the crowd I caught sight of Miss Blades in black skirt, crushed strawberry blouse, saint hat; Miss Larkins, black alpace, with grey striped vest and collarette; Mrs Haultain, black cashmere; Mra Winstone, brown holiand; Mrs Sharland, black cashmere; Mra Winstone, brown holiand; Mrs Sharland, black cashmere mourning; black toque with feathers; Miss Shirley-Haker, pretty blouse, Beatty, neat-fitting grey contame with black bead trimmings; Miss Morrison, green cashmere, hat with heliotrope flowers; Miss Kith Haker, Line flower, Mrs Hallen, Mrs Harland, Mrs Harl blouse, hat trimmed with fioral ribbon; the Misses Fenton, pretty blue linen costumes with neck and waist bands of blue velvet, hats to distch.

AT THE OPENING OF THE PARNELL LAWN

AT THE OPENING OF THE PARNELL LAWN

on Monday I noticed Mre T. F. Ward, in a dark skirt, helicotope blouse: Mrs Younghuband, gray tailor-made gown, mink wet, have with pink; Mre Preston Stevenson looked admired his hales keire, black and white striped blouse covered with chiffon, large black crinkley hat; Mrs Bush, navy tailor-made gown; Mrs Nichol, green tailor-made gown; Mrs Pripp, brown cashmers; Mrs Tiedale, black silk; Miss Tiedale, dark skirt, pink blouse; the Misses Wylde Brown (two) were seminarly gowned in white muslins with fichus: Mrs Jones, black silk with cherry-coloured silk yoke and cuffs; Miss Jones, blue zepher; Mrs Friend, black and white striped caphyr, bonnet with flowers; her little girl, blue with black; Mrs Salmon, mourning costume, Miss Dudley, black alpace with pink yoke, etc. Mrd dlowers; Mrs Leathem, fawn tailor-made gorn of the striped chine silk relieved at the neck with frils of white Paleley pongee silk, black and white striped shiste, white sallor hat; Mrs Willie Bloomfield looked remarkably well in a grey and white thied daughter wore white; Miss Locas, charming combination of mode grey lustre and pink silk; Miss Thorne George, may Writer and pink silk; Miss Thorne George, may R. Holmes, may striped gown; Miss Holmes, dark skirt, light blouse; Mrs Leathow flich, fawn gown triumed with green; Miss Brods, pink and white striped caphyr, sailor hat; Miss Eval kein, pink and white striped comming combination of mode grey lustre sand pink silk; Miss Thorne George, may well and the striped chief, pink and white striped comming combination of mode grey lustre sand pink silk; Miss Holmes, Mrs Ediliot, Jake, Miss Edilie Herelival, bla canary blouse; Mies Kitgour, electrique blue, yellow bat; Mre Arthur Taylor, cream; Mies Von Sturmer, grey skirt, white blouse; Mre Light, navy blue; Mre Aashey Hunter, black silk; Mrs Lucky, fawn trimmed with yellow; Mies Blacche Peacotek, white blouse; Mre Malley, fawn trimmed with purple; atc. etc.

On the scood day of the Children's Flower Show I noticed Mre Nelsen, in black; Mrs McKean, black; Miss Gorrie, striped blouse, alkir, fasther boa; Miss M. Gorrie, black velvet bodice; Mrs Hote Lewis, lemon crepon, black hat with pink roses; Mrs Gorrie, black; Miss Whitson, black hat with pink roses; Mrs Gorrie, black; Miss Whitson, black and rod repp, white shirtlette. I have been black trimmed with cream lace, grey cape with tartan hood; Miss Winnie Leys, blue blouse, brown skirt and cape; Miss T. George, Gobelin blue; Miss M. Gorge, cream; Miss Donald, white and pink stripe blouse, dark skirt; Mrs Orley, grey; Miss Kennedy, navy, white vest; Miss Holly Davis, blue blouse, dark skirt; Miss Trevithick, navy and pale blue sallor osetume; Miss Bell; Raws and cream lace, white hat; Miss — Bell, green and pink stripe trimmed with cream lace.

The following are a few of the drosses worn at the

CONVERSAZIONE GIVEN IN HONOUR OF BISHOP LENIHAN

CONVERSAZIONE GIVEN IN HONOUR OF RISHOP LENHAN.

Mrs P. Digman, a stylish black and white silk dress: Miss Peacocke, a very pretty cream dress: Miss T. Coffey, a very pretty column of pick and cream: Miss R. Tole, a pretty black and white: Miss Coffey, pretty blue contume: Miss Outhwaite, grey siles Miss Coffey, pretty blue contume: Miss Outhwaite, grey siles Miss Rose and Miss Moviele. Miss Contained Miss Moviele. Miss Canada and Miss Moviele. Miss Savage, black and white: Mrs Mahoney dainty occurre of shot; Mrs A. Burton, a pretty blue and white dress; Mrs Brown, a handsome pink silk blouse, black skirt.

An excellent

CONCERT

CONCERT

was very kindly given last week in St. Luke's Parish Hall in sid of the small debt yet remaining on the building. An appreciative and the self-hall in side the small debt yet remaining to a the building. An appreciative and the self-hall and at the rose of the undertainment accorded the perfect of the state of the self-hall and at the rose of the undertainment accorded the perfect of the self-hall perfect of

Amongst the gowns worn at the Misses Wilkins

POLO AFTERNOON TEA

POLO AFTERNOON TEA

I noticed the following:—Miss Wilkins, dark skirt, pink blouse:
Miss Maud Wilkins, pink and white striped zephyr; Mrs Dennis O'Rorke, black gown, white sailor hat; Mrs (Col.) Dawcon, paie lilac zephyr, fawn cape; Miss Bilot, dark skirt, light blouse; Mrs Willie Bloomfield, black skirt, striped black and white blouse, sailor hat; Mrs George Bloomfield, beige tailor made costume, rose pink slik vest, toque with floral decorations; Mrs Mercer, fawn tailor made costume; Mrs Buddle (Wellington), seilor hats; Miss Churton, dark skirt, light bouse; Miss Mabel Churton, blue gingham; Miss Beatrice Boll, grey riding habit; Miss Griffiths, navy riding habit, white vest;
Miss Amphlet, black gown; Miss Thorne George, dark skirt, light blouse; Miss Amy Banks, dark skirt, pink blouse;
Miss Blanche Banks, black gown; velvet blouse, black relvet hat;
Miss Creagh, blue zephyr with white lace; Misses Fierce (two);
Mrs Hamner, black mourning costume; Miss Jackson and Miss Winnie Cotter, dark skirts, light blouses; Mrs Andrew Hanna, dark skirts, with the blouse Miss Ettle Iroland, pretty blue zephyr, which is close by in the adjoining paddecks.

Miss CELLA DAMPIER'S BENEFIT CONCERT,

MISS CELIA DAMPIER'S BENEFIT CONCERT,

but it is always difficult to see dresses in the City Hall. Amongst the crowd were Mrs J. J. Holland wearing black. Miss Holland, wore pretty pink crepon veiled with black lace: Mrs W. Coleman, petunia silk with black lace; Mrs de Montalk, blue, white cloak; Mrss Vaile, yellow; Mrs Edgar, black; Miss Langsford, grey; Miss Nora Greenwood, pale blue muslin; Miss Auther Greenwood, black and white striped gown; Miss Anderson grey; Miss Knight, wine-coloured silk; Miss Anderson grey; Miss Knight, wine-coloured silk; Miss Mrs Greenwood, black and white striped gown; Miss Casen, white; clo., ctc. The cheed, Miss Walnutt, blue; the consistency of the colour property of the colour property in white satio.

THE AMATEUR ATHLETIC SPORTS

Maria, blue; Miss Buddle, grey tweed; Miss Wahnutt, blue; Miss Gussen, white; etc., etc. The charming little heroine of the evening looked pretty in white satin.

THE AMATEUR ATHLETIC SPORTS

held in the Domain on Saturday were very extensively patronised, and a fashionable attendance testified to the popularity of this function. It was very pleasant under the shady trees, though the wind was chilly in the open despite the sunshine. Hright summer dresses were worn and the ladies were eager spectators. Amongst them were Mrs Hope Lewis, in lemon-coloured gown with sern insertion on hodice strapped with black satin bands, chic white hat; Miss Earle, plak floral mussin; Mrs (Dr.) Daw; Miss Holland, stylish pink shot gown: Miss Easie Holland, nevy blue and white spotted frock, gern hat; Miss C. Firth, slate grey, yellow slik yoke veiled with cream lace, hat to correspond; Miss E. Brett, effective electric blue crepon, yoke and epaulettes of cream lace, golden brown fancy straw hat; Mrs F. Kenderdine, fawn tailor-made gown; full white vest, black bat with pink roses; Miss Devereux, white and blue atripe pongee; Miss Oxiey, smart and the strap of the Valle, black; Miss Morrin, grey crepon, shot silk bodice, black hat with yellow; Miss Macnicol, shot grey silk blouse, black ekirt; Miss G. Buddle, blue shot silk blouse, brown skirt; Miss Rates, light blouse, dark skirt, white whir hat; Mrv Arthur Carter, brown skirt, white blouse, brown hat; Mrv Listron, floral mudin blouse, dark skirt; Miss Braithwaite, fawn; Mrs Hudson, beliotrope mudin, green hat with hebitorrope flowers; Miss Cook, white spotted muslin; Miss F. Cook, cream and yellow strip grown, yellow silk; boke; Mrs McLeod, grey figured lustre, bonnet with green; Miss Scott, pink blouse, black skirt, white hat; etc., etc. There were so many that I can only give you a few of the many pretty drasses.

Phys.Lis Rabiting

PRYLLIS BROOMS.

HAMILTON.

DEAR BER.

NOVEMBER 22.

THE PRESENTATION OF CERTIFICATES won at the late examination of the Ambulance Classes took place last Thursday afternoon in St. Peter's Sinday-school. Nearly 100 persons were present. After partaking of Afternoon teal which was provided by the last incombers, the certificates were a warded has provided by the last incombers, the certificates were a warded has been presented in the Bresser, the certificates were a warded lance classes, presented in the Bresser and the the been graved as a token of appreciation of his lectured and instable in graved as a token of appreciation of his lectured and instable in Auckland.
The Misses Edgecumbe have gone on a visit to friends in Auckland and at the frames.
Miss Sandes who has received three months' leave on account of ill-health left last week with Miss Darcy for Masterton. All her friends hope to welcome her home again before very long quite recovered.

GISBORNE,

DEAR B.E. On Saturday the

NOVEMBER 15.

POVERTY BAY POLO CLUB

POURTY NAY POLO CLUB

Misses Barker, who were becomingly dressed in dark skirts and Misses Barker, who were becomingly dressed in dark skirts and Misses Barker, who were becomingly dressed in dark skirts and the skirts and skirts and skirts and skirts and skirts and thoroughly appreciated by the onlookerd or well ago who be ing. Amongst the ladder present were Mrs Nolan, in dark skirt, pink blouse, sailor hat; Mrs Reypolds, groy and white silk, blark hat; Mrs Lark, white costume with black ribbon streamers; Mrs Smith, white pique, flowered bonnet; Miss Bradley, white mussin, black hat with roses; Miss E Bradley, rose pink and black contume, small white hat; Miss A. Bradley, white dress, sailor hat; Miss M. Hese, blue blouse, dark skirt; Miss Adonson, dark hat; Miss M. Tucker, white gown trimmed with green silk, white lace hat with cream roses; Miss Reynolds, dark skirt and blouse; Miss Webb, white drill costume; Miss Adair, dark skirt and blouse; Miss Webb, white drill costume; Miss Adair, dark skirt and blouse; Miss Webb, white drill costume; Miss Adair, dark skirt and blouse; Miss Webb, white drill costume; Miss Adair, dark skirt, pink blouse, sailor hat; Miss Guthrie-Smith.

A PIESSE

PERSEE

A PICNIC

to the Ormond quarry was arranged by Mr Macleod and a few others for the saine afternoon (Saturday). Although unavoidably detained in town, I heard from all who went out that the affair was a great success. The party, consisting of Mrs A. Rees, Misses Crawford (two), Miss Middleton, Misses Dirumond (two), Misses Maclernon (two), and Messes Sherriff, Crawford, Manule (two), Maclernon (two), and Messes Sherriff, Crawford, Manule (two), Engles, and returned home by moonlight about 11 o'clock, Kenzie's brakes, and returned home by moonlight about 11 o'clock,

UPOKONGARO.

DEAR BEE,

NOVEMBER 18. Upokongaro was last night the scene of unusual

A SOCIAL

Upokongaro was last night the scene of unusual A SUCIAL.

to welcome the Bishop and Mrs. Wallis was given by the congregation of St. Mary's Church. It was the first social over held in this protuctly little township, and much anxiely was felt by its promoters but the success of the evening must have exceeded all hopes, and a thoroughly enjoyable time was spent. Brantubs, in which were really preity and useful things for grown-ups, as we'll as toys for the children, were under the able care of the Misses McKelvie and Cowper. The best prize was drawn from the bath by Mr Ted Cowper; it was a beautiful bridat old. Tea and coffee tables were presided over by McSchmes IP Anvers, of Gribben, and Messrs. McKelvie, Bagnail, Ribertson, Panyers, and Cowper. Several musical items were given during the evening. A vioin sole from Miss Gribben was a treat Songs were sung by Mr Anderson. The Powder Monkey, and The Twins, and Mr Vauchan. The Flight of Ages. The Magnic, and by special request, The Fin Geetre. Among those present were Mrs Wallis, in a handonne black and bine striped crepon. Miss Mrs Mulle, in a handonne black and bine striped crepon in Miss Mrs Mulle, in a handonne black and bine striped crepon. Miss moire and amoser; Miss Brandon, while mudie; Mrs Humpbries, wore a dark skirt, and very pretty blouse of heliotrope crepon and black ribbon; Mrs Leucace Brandon Wellington, birts, moire and amoser; Miss Brandon, while mudie; Mrs Humpbries, wearing a pretty pale pink blouse and black crepon skirt. Messrs Humpbries, Speed, Brandon, Owen, Robertson, and many others, including many Masoris, who seemed to thoroughly enjoy all the proceedings, were present. Addresses were given by Bishop Wolfers, and Mrs Mrs Mallace were the guests of Mrs Dranton were held in the church for the litest time by the Hisbop, assisted by the Rev. Herman and Freer (the latter the guests of Mrs Dranton, who have the was a sual in this district, torrents of randon, which linckilje canne after people had started for church, so did not prevent a ful

NEW PLYMOUTH.

DEAR BEE,
At the opening of the

NOVEMBER 20.

NEW PLYMOUTH LAWN TENNIS CLUB

NEW PLYMOUTH LAWN TENNIS CLI B amongst those present I noticed Mrs Leatham, in black coat and skirt, figured silk blowes; Mrs Morrison, navy blue serge; Miss N. Websier, pile blue cambric trimmed with lace; Miss Holdsworth, black skirt, white cambric blones figured with jick. Miss Carrie Hayl; black skirt, white combris blones degreed with pile Carrie Hayl; black linete, Miss B Buyl; black skirt, white mustin blouse; Miss Husten, Miss B Buyl; black skirt, white mustin blouse; Miss Hursthouse, brown flecked tweed trimmed with white lace; Miss Hales, grey lustre; Mrs W. 6baw, black skirt, white mustin blouse; Miss Hales, grey lustre; Mrs W. 6baw, black skirt, Wiss N. Hursthouse, black frimmed with white lace; Miss Hales, grey lustre; Mrs W. 6baw, black skirt, yellow Mrs S. Shaw, black serge; Mrs Melharmid, fawn; Miss L. MacDiarmid, navy blue sorge; Miss Bellarmid, fawn; Miss L. MacDiarmid, navy blue sorge; Miss Bellarmid, fawn; Miss L. MacDiarmid, may blue sorge; Miss Harthouse, pale green mustle. Mrs Holdworth, black; Miss C. Hanerton, black coat and skirt, Miss C. Hanerton, black coat and skirt, Miss L. Thousan, black retpon skirt, black and white striped blouse; Miss Black skirt, blue and white striped blouse; Miss C. black skirt, blue and white striped blouse; striped blouse; Miss Blundell (Weilington, uluc ann women; Miss O. Tuke, black skirt, blue and white striped bluuse; B. Tuke, black skirt, pink blouse; Miss Vita Bayley,