

The New Zealand Graphic

And Ladies' Journal.

Vol. XXI.—No. XIII.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1898.

[Subscription—28s. per annum; if paid in advance 20s. Single copy—Sixpence.

There once were two cats
of Kilkenny,
Who thought there was one cat too many,
So they fought and they
bit,
They scratched and they spit,
When, instead of two cats,
there weren't any

(Early English rhyme)

Ashley Hunter
98

THE SURVIVAL OF THE FITTEST.