

The New Zealand Graphic

And Ladies' Journal.

VOL. XXII.—No. XVI.

SATURDAY, APRIL 22, 1899.

[Subscription—25s. per annum; if paid in advance 20s. Single copy.—Sixpence.

A NEW HAND AT THE WHEEL.

At the opening of the National Council of Women of New Zealand held in Auckland, the President, in her address, gave various reasons why women should not only have a share in the Government of the colony, but also a seat in Parliament.