1891. THE YEAR WE'VE LEFT BEHIND US.

THE world does not think, with the post-diplomatist whose recent loss it is still de-

The history of any year, however uneventful, is worth looking back upon. Twelve maths can-not well go by without leaving some record of their passage on the story of a race; and it is not alone in paths of revolution and sensationation that bistory makes itself. To rute QCEXX, the year, if not eventful, has, at least, been basy. The filty-fourth year of Hen MALESTY's hap by and glorious reign has been crowled with benevo-lent activity. A month's holidnyat firmsee was quickly followed by the task of grac-ing the early days of the Naval Exhibition (which ruse QUERS inspected on May 7(1)) QUEEN inspected on May 7th) and the visit of HER MAJES-

COLERA INSUMPTION MAY (TH) and the visit of Higz MARES. TY & grandson, the GRIMAN EMPANDIA at the beginning of July.
