society cossip.

AUCKLAND.

The weather on Saturday was simply delightful and sequence the attendance of ladies

AT POTTER'S PADDOCK

in consequence the attendance of ladies

AT POTTER'S PADDOCK

to witness the practice football match was unusually large. Mrs

T. Cotter wore a stylish dark grey costume, and that to correspond,

Mrs McArhur was in a black grown and bonnot, and scal plush may had the dark and the state of the state of the state of the state may blue dress and hat, grey cloth tacket. Miss McCornick, sty sish navy blue costume; Miss Muddle, pretty grey costume; Miss

Williamson, stylish navy blue gown, and hat on suite; Missus

Hay, Remuera, were in crimson and light fawn, respectively; Miss

Bevore looked very stylish in a becoming grey dress, cape and hat

all to match; her sister wore navy blue, the jacket showing a crimson blouse; Miss Mackay, stylish myrtle green velveteen for the stylish in the structure of the styling stylish in the mavy blue costume; Miss Mackay, stylish myrtle green velvetoen thouse, plush jacket, and large felt bat; Miss Lowis, stylish mavy blue costume; Miss Wilkins looked stylish in black trimmed with astrachan; Miss - Wilkins also wore a stylish costume of navy serge; Miss Brophy, pretty blue dress and hat to correspond; Mrs A. L. Edwards wore dark fawn and brown retty grey costume; Missos Lowis (Parnell), both looked well in dret gowthen may blue; the younger Missos Hesketh wore mently dark costumes.

The attendance at

MADAME GOLDENSTEDT'S FAREWELL CONCERT

MADAME GOLDENSTEDT'S FAREWELL CONCERT

MADAME GOLDENSTEDT'S FAREWELL CONCERT

was not nearly so large as might have been expected. Those present, however, were most enthusiastic, encores being frequently insisted upon, and in all cases most graciously complied with. Madame Goldenstedt sang beautifully, and looked well in a pretty gown of very pate pink veiling trimmed with black ribbon experts the other ladies who assisted on the programme were Miss Staunton, in creum satin prettily trimmed with cream and gold times quarze; Miss Cowern, in a slightly trained black velvet gown; and Miss Adama, who were a pretty black couning discovery and the sating the sating of the state of the sating of the sating that is the sating of the sating

ALL BAINTS SOCIAL

atthough many appeared in pretty light drosses; Mrs Calder were black silk, and pretty point lace collar and cuffs; Miss Kelly looked nice in a black net skirt and cardinal silk blouse; Miss Blamford, pretty pale blue nun's veiling trimmed with cream lace; Miss Wright wore black silk relieved with cardinal flowers; Miss Woodyoar, black skirt and blue silk blouse; Miss Bell, becoming pink contune; Miss H. Berore was charuning in black; Miss F. Langsford, pretty sea green dress; Miss Henderson, fark heliotrope gown; Miss A. Short looked exceedingly pretty have the charming in place of the charming in black continue; Miss Howard, pretty pale blue dress; Misse Howard, pretty pale blue dress; Misse Selvaber, both looked well in white; Miss Merritt, stylish black costume; Miss Kate Merrit looked very pretty in fawn.

GOWNS WORN AT MRS L. D. NATHAN'S KETTLEDRUM.

GOWNS WORN AT MRS L. D. NATHAN'S KETILEDRUM.

Mrs L. D. Nathan wore an exceedingly chic dress of black silk, softly relieved with pink chiffon; Miss Nathan, navy, trimmed with velvet; her sister a pretty red and white striped frock; Miss Rathan, navy, trimmed with velvet; her sister a pretty red and white striped frock; Miss Rita Tole was garbed in mavy and white; Miss Offsten rod dress and hat; Mrs Dignan, navy; Mrs Hutt, black; Mrs C. H. Haines, pretty brown plain; Mrs Moss-Davis, Mrs G. H. Haines, pretty brown plain; Mrs Moss-Davis, Index Hilk, bounct with maize-coloured ribbons, and a bunch of margolds in her dress; Mrs G. Lewis, black silk and her daughter trained fawn gown trimmed with astrachan; Mrs Issaes, in black; Mrs S. Morrin, black; Mrs Cruickshank, navy; Miss Noil Diunedin, an extremely stylish red Irish popilit trimmed with blick braid; Mrs A. Nathan, navy dress, seakskin pucket; Mrs Britt, a tasterty, Mrs Rooks huntsome gown of brown and black camols heir; Miss Ker-Taylor, red cashiners; Mrs Nachelski, handsome black velved tress, Jacket en suite; and her daughter looked well in a trained fawn gown with becoming white silk, large hat; Mrs Honeyman, nearly fitting black gown edged with gold, black velvet toque and yellow coming black dresses.

BALL AT ARATAFU.

BALL AT ARATAPU.

BALL AT ARATAPU.

One of the most stylish balls of the season was the one held in Aratapu. Northern Wairoa, on the 15th inst. The ball was under the auspices of the Orangemen there, and reflects great credit on their Order. The Public Hall was tastefully decorated for the occasion with evergreens and motioes of the Order. At a Common with evergreens and motioes of the Order. At a Common with evergreens and motioes of the Order. At a Common with evergreens and motioes of the Arate was the laudations of the audience. The parties in the farces were Messrs Hammond, Marcroft, Bassett, Jones, thodes, and Mrs Murcroft, Mrs Hammond and Miss C. Niddrie. This being over, Mr W. A. Spiers, the Highland dancing champion of New Zealand, made his appearance on the stage in Highland costuments of the Marcroft, lead fling, and was encored when he gave the Shan Truesdac. Mr McMullen, violinist, and Mr T. Wells, planist, provided the music. Mr Bassett and Mr Stephens sacted as M.C.'s. Following, is a list of the

DRESSES WORN AT THE HALL.

is a list of the DRESSES WORN AT THE HALL.

Mise Niddrie, white Indian muelin; Mrs Capple, slate satin; Mise Souta, green cashmore relieved with cardinal; Miss M. Bassett, salmon pink mun's veiling and black veilvet; Miss Harrison, pink silk veiled with white lace, cardinal flowers; Mrs Feterson, blue, trimmed with white lace; Mrs Ford, cau de nil cushmere, white lace and pink feathers; Mrs McLacen, crosm instru, pink flowers; Mrs Mareroft, mauve silk, white lace; Mrs Tattersail, blue silk, Homiton lace, bouquet of violets; Miss Stitiworthy, white lacing may be a subject of the silk of t

WELLINGTON.

DEAR BEE, JULY 15.

We are very gay indeed here just now. I have eisewhere given particulars, and have now only to describe the

DEAR BEE,

We are very gay indeed here just now. I have eisewhere given particulars, and have now only to describe the DEESSES AT THE THOUSDON LAWN TENNIS CLUB MALL. Amongst the guests were Mr and Mrs Partill; Mr and Mrs Gisson; Miss Gisson, in bright blue; Mrs Barron, in black velve; Miss Barron, in pink and her sister revenus silk; Miss Nathan, white chiffen; Mrs D. Nathan were cream silk; Miss Nathan, white chiffen; Mrs D. Nathan were cream silk; Miss Nathan, white chiffen; Mrs D. Nathan were cream silk; Miss Nathan, white chiffen; Mrs D. Nathan were cream silk; Miss Nathan, white his gauze trimmed with feathers; Miss B. Backlay, in cream not, and her sister in a pretty blue gown; Mrs Loughman who hack with red flowers; Miss B. Loughman (white, with large Watteau bow; Miss Harding, black and gold Swiss bell, and her sister cream; Mrs J. Hodots (Nupler) yellow-lik; Miss Rhodes (Napler), pato blue; Miss Kennedy, black, irinmed, with large white motire sash; Mrs Smithson (Vinnaru), cream; Mrs Harding, black, Mrs Mrs Miss Harding, with large white motire sash; Mrs Smithson (Vinnaru), cream; Mrs Harding, black, Mrs Miss Mrs William of American (Mrs Miss Burnett, pink; Miss K. Burnett, with large white motire sash; Mrs Smithson (Vinnaru), cream; Mrs Harding, black, in Mrs Miss Land, black and pink freathers; and her sister, white silk with grantly like certain production of the same; Miss Burnett, pink; Miss Turckey, vellow gink freathers; and her sister, white silk trimmed with yellow; Miss I man, with mauve ribbons; Miss A. St. Hill (Instings), blue striped gauze; Miss M. Gore, cream, prettily trimmed with freathers; and her sister white sain; Miss II. Marchouse, white for production of pink flowers; and her sister white sain; Miss II. Marchouse, white file production, pake with gauze; Mrs. C. Eard, with trimmed with ruching; Miss Rauze; Mrs. C. Land, with sisk friling on, and the sister white sain; Miss II. Marchouse, white received and miss Messenger, Ir. Adams, and Mrs. Mosters Kebbell, Birnhaume, Turnhull, S

GOWNS WORN AT MRS T. C. WILLIAMS AFTERNOON.

A few of the many guests were Lady Campbell, the Hon. R. and Mrs Oliver, Mrs Newman, the Hun. C. and Mrs Johnston, the latter in a beautiful black velvet trained gown and tiny pink and jot bonnel; Mrs Rolleston, in handsome terra-cetta brocade; Mrs Roeves, Mr and Mrs Reid, the latter wearing a pretty robucco corduroy trained gown with front of Gobelin silk and white lave, small bonnet to match; Mr and Mrs Baker, Mrs A. Rhokes, Mrs and Miss Pyrscent, Mrs and the Misses Grace, Miss M. Graco wearing a pretty terra-cetta silk gown, trained, black sash and black feather hat; Mrs Adams, Mrs Ferguson, the Misses Moonse, Miss Hallowes, in turquines blue trained with black volvet and tot. Mrs Adams, Mrs Ferguson, the Misses Moonse dore, Mr and Mrs Ad. Miss St. Hill, Mrs Partit, Mrs and Misses Gore, Mr and Mrs Ed. Roown, Messrs Gillington, Boetham, Govett, Studholme, Hadfield, Tripp, etc.

RUBY.

THE HUTT.

DEAR BEE, JULY 14.
I think you will like some descriptions of the

DEAR BEE,

I think you will like some descriptions of the

PROCKS WORN AT THE RUTT BALL.

Lady Hector wore a rich old rose silk striped with sutin with long train; Lady Buckley, a beautiful black fores trimmed with sile of the striped by the stri

I am afraid the sterner sex will not take to it kindly; they never do.

The next day was welchedly rold and miserable for the Hatt-Park Races. It rained in the morning but cleared up about mon, but by that time the ground was thoroughly soaked and this made things very unpleasant. The band tried hard to be cheerful, but their music even seemed to me to be doleful, probably displayed. The seement of the best displayed and they there were the server and the seement of the seement of the doleful probably displayed. The seement of the seement o

CHRISTCHURCH.

DEAR BEE, At the last 'At Home' of the

At the last 'At Home' of the CRESTER GREEK CRESTER AT Home of the CRESTER CRESTER CRESTER AT HOME AND A CRESTER CRESTER AT HOME AND A CRESTER CRESTER AND A CRESTER AND A

have, as you are doubtless aware, scored a great success in Christ-church. As a whole they are a great treat. Theur our stroughing, but doserving Musical Society is to share in the profils. Among the number who througed the Theatre were, Judge and Mrs

Denniston and party, Mrs Julius and two daughters, Mrs Embling, Mr and Mrs Rickerton Fisher, Mr and Mrs Readmont, Mr and Mrs W. D. Meares, Mr and Mrs Comnon, Mrs R. Meares, Miss Garriek, Mr and Mrs F. Graham, Miss Graham, Mr Acton - Adams Mr and Mrs G. Doberts, Mrs G. Price, Mr and Mrs New Ham, Mr and Mrs H. D. Carter, Mr and Mrs Mr and Mrs New Ham, Mr and Mrs H. D. Carter, Mr and Mrs Pascoe, Mrs C. C. Rowen and Machine M. Mosant Miss Worthy, Mrs H. Mennis Miss Worthy, Mrs G. Caok, Mrs Hiller, Mr and Mrs Appleby, Mrs C. Caok, Mrs Hiller, Townend, Mr and Mrs F. M. Wallare, Mrs and Mrs Wilding, Miss Tabart, Mrs Hilmd, Mr U. Turner and the Misses Turner, Miss M. Hell and a great many more. The two boxes were taken, Mrs W. Wilson, Miss Faithurst, Miss F. Halo, and Masses V. H. Excraves, Hodgson and Webb occupying one, Mr and Mrs L. Gibbs and Mr. Mrs and Miss Kinsey the other. The right was a most inserable one, the rain came pattering down all the time and the halies were obliged, almost without exception, to keep on their opera mantles the whole evening.

TIMARU.

July 15.

DEAR BEE,

It is a very long time since you have fail any news from Timaru. For one thing there has not been much news to send, and, atthough I have not been quite in the fashion and had take the property of the transport of the transport of tra

DUNEDIN.

DEAR BEE,

At the University ball the following were some of the pretty gowns: I naticed: Mrs Johnstone looked charming in steel gressilk, with steel trimmings; Mrs Sale, a cambination of pale green and pink; Mrs Davidson, groy silk; Mrs Shand, a handsone black silk gown; Mrs Williams looked very well in grey and pink; Mrs Mory Williams were black, relieved with pale green; Miss Nixon, very pretty gown of pale yellow, flushed with yellow ribbons; Miss Landels, pato blue silk; Miss L. Mackerras, white merveillenx; Miss B. Scott, white sands with gold trimmings Mrs Mrs and the blue of the sale to the sale of the Among those present
AT THE KAHANGA CLUB

Among those present
At THE KAHANGA CLUB
were Mrs H. McKenzie, black silk; Mrs Watson, red silk blouse and black skirt; Mrs Davies, delaine with lace trimmings; Miss Fulton, pale blue cashmere; Miss Ruberts, rose coloured silk;
Mrs Rose, dark blue with astractan trimmings; Miss Gaulter, pretty dress of bright red with chiffon; Mrs Meihand, old rose silk with white yake and sleeves. Also present were Mestamose Pin, McLaren, Turton, Michie, Gaulter, Hosking, McKenzie, H. McKel, Masses Webster, Carpills, Reppolds, Hoberts, Butterworth, Maitland, Folton, Gilkson, Italray, Sieg, Neill, etc.
Mrs W. G. Neill gave An AFTERONON TEA FOR GRIES,
among whom were the Misses Reynolds, Stephenson, Spence, Dymock, Gilkison, Driver, Mills, Roberts, Martin, Batlerworth, and many more.

Mrs Boyd gave another very large afternoon ton. There were Mrs Boyd gave another very large afternoon ton. There were quite sixty present. Mrs liess and Miss Marshall sang 'O Wert Thou in the Cole Blast? Mrs Mills contributed 'Home, Dearie, Irone,' Miss McLarand States and Miss Marshall sang 'O Wert Thou,' Miss McLarand States and the most said with the Miss McLarand States and the Miss said with Moman, Miss McLaren being an English Lody, Annough those present were Mesitanes Mills, McKenzie, Rattray, Morris, Bulings, Garratt, Asheroft, Sise, and the Misses Reynolds Garratt, Gaulter, Rattray, Gilkison, Butterworth, Wilhams, and many others.

CITY HALL CONCERT.

Garratt Ganter, Battray, Gikkson, Butterworm, Amany Ghers.

CITY HALL CONCRET.

A very good concert was given in the City Hall in connection with St. John's, Roslym. A mong the lady vocalists was Mrs H. Rose, who wore black mervelleave with a deep humee of black lace, the corsage cut low. Miss Rose Hancy looked pretty in a cramp songee silk flowered with pade black Mrs Marphy, who made her first appearance since letter turn from Sydney, Jonked very charming in a don't exhibit black velyet gown, the lowest bother being trimmed with white chillon; Miss West, who presided at the pagn during the evening, were a robe of green velvet.

MAUDE.

NELSON.

JULY 11.

DEAR BEE, JULY 11, poly given you as description in 'Topies' of the jolly evening we spent at Cable Bay. Among some of those present were, Mr and Mrs Perey Adams, Mr and Mrs Browning, Mr and Mrs Browning, Mr and Mrs Browning, Mr and Mrs Browning, Mr and Mrs Mrowning, Mrs Mrowning, Mrs Mrowning, Mrs Mrowning, Mrs Mrowning, Mrown, Mrown,

Inter were now tresses work, so I will not accrete the original ways to be a compared to the c

COKER'S FAMILY HOTEL,

CHRISTCHURCH, NEW ZEALAND.

PATRONISED BY HIS EXCELLENCY LORD ONBLOW. Five minutes from Rail and Post, The most moderate first-class Hotel in Australasia.

THOMAS POPHAM,

Late Commander U.S.S. Co.) Proprietor.