

No 70. "Desert", or rather, "Deserted": an after-dinner still life study, the guests having retired under the table.

No 27. "Now then, steopid, where the missing word are yer comin' to?"

No 80. "The submerged tenth; or fearful floods in London, St Pauls Cathedral underwater."

No 79. "How do you like my new bonnet?"

No 59. "Now who's been upsetting this room?"

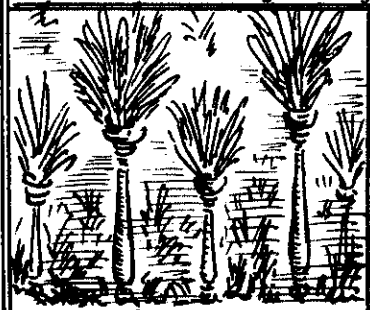

No 58. "A Grecian Lady (help) — 'Dra't them rosebushes, there are always a catchin' one's dress"

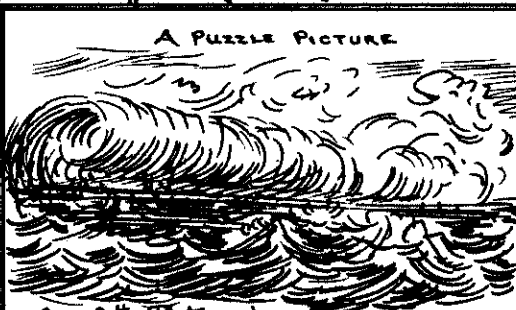

"Now to my mind there is a distinct 'want of 'breadth about his treatment 'of the subject, which, er. —
"Ah! yes! dear boy, but then look at 'the 'height' he's given it!!"

No 100. "Fine arable country" or "His first visit to his new farm" (bought at auction)

No 49. "In the feather-duster Country"

A PUZZLE PICTURE
One of the Photographs: lowly mouth Breakwater: Puzzle, to find the Breakwater

Ashley Hunter 92