At the monthly meeting of the committee of the Canterbury Jockey Club, held on Tucaday, the question of handicapping untried horses was considered at length, when the following resolution was carried:—

"That the committee of the handicap handicap which have never started in a race previous to the publication of the handicap whall be allotted equal weights according to age, and subject to the usual sexual allowances, unless the conditions of the race provide otherwise." The next committee meeting was fixed for Tucaday, April 12th. Transfers were genated as follows:—From H. Mossman to W. A. Stott, b f Celerity; from L. D. and N. A. Stott, b f Celerity; f Celeri

The lawns and enclosures at Riccarton are looking wonderfully wen. People who have not seen them since November would hardly recognise them.

Mr Reid lins received word from Sydney that Gladsome is progressing very well at Rindwick. On Thursday morning the illiy did a satisfactory gallop.

Counsel for L. H. Hewitt in the action brought sgainst J. Goodwin, the owner of the poay Belle Cole, for riding fees, has shandoned the deforce walch he set up and confessed judgment for the amount claimed and costs.

CHRISTCHURCH, Tuesday.

Betting on the Great Easter and Great Autumn Handleap is restricted owing to the keen demand for Marthan and Grand Rapidis. According to report the Yakthurst horses have both races as good an won, and buckers are asking for Little Base. I am led to understand that Martian, who was bred to English time, is something out of the common. One phjectlon to bing is that he has never run in public, but this is bot of much importance when applied to Valeburst herea. When you can pub a down horses together on a private track with the colours up there is no reason why any of them should fail on the score of greenness.
