DICKEY-COSSAR.

An exceedingly pretty and interesting wedding was solemnized at All Saints' Church on Thursday, March 17, when Miss Amy Eno Cossar, youngest daughter of Mr. Cossar, of Ponsonby, Auckland, was married to Mr. John Charles Dickey. The ceremony was performed by the Ven. Archdeacon Calder, in the presence of a large of friends and relations. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked very pretty in a lovely white silk wedding robe. The skirt was profusely pin-tucked with a deep gauged flounce, and the front panel tucked to form large diamonds; the bodice was also diamond tucked with a large chiffon applique collar, edged with sun-ray pleated chiffon, and had an Empire belt. The tulle veil fell softly over a spray of orange flowers, and she carried a beautiful shower bouquet of white roses, bouvardia, and maidenhair fern. Miss Kronfeldt was maid of honour, and looked charming in a rose pink silk frock, prettily tucked and gauged, with ecru lace applique, and hanging bolero. She wore a large white felt hat with folds of pink silk and a large white bird. This costume was completed by a lovely bouquet composed of pink button-hole roses, pink bouvardia, and ferns. The bridegroom presented her with a very handsome gold brooch, with two hearts and crown set in diamonds, and a dart through with a large pearl head. Mr. Alex. Watson, cousin of the bridegroom, officiated as best man. At the conclusion of the service the guests drove to the residence of the bride's parents, where the bride and bridegroom received the congratulations of their friends. The wedding breakfast was laid in the dining-room, and was of an exceptionally recherche character, hospitality being dispensed on a most lavish scale. During the evening the German band, stationed on the lawn, played numerous selections of bright and appropriate music. Amongst the many beautiful and costly presents was a handsome silver tea service, and oak silver-mounted tray, suitably inscribed, presented by the employees of Messrs. John Burns and Co. Numerous congratulatory telegrams were received during the afternoon by the bridal pair. Later Mr. and Mrs. Dickey left on their honeymoon tour, the bride wearing a navy cloth tailor-made gown, faced with white silk, with pale blue silk front, overlaid with embroidered grass lawn, inset with lace, and a stylish pale blue felt hat, with shaded autumn leaves underneath the brim. Mrs. Cossar (mother of the bride) was attired in a handsome black brocade, with deep lace flounce, and a chiffon fichu, black velvet bonnet, with white velvet coronet front, veiled in silver gauze. Mrs. Kronfeldt, fawn flake voile, with lace and satin ribbon yoke, cream lace hat, with sable fur and clusters of flame-coloured flowers; Mrs. Chatfield, tussore silk, trimmed with cream silk yak lace insertion, and black picture hat; Mrs. Davies, cream silk voile, with chiffon applique on bodice, stylish black hat; Mrs. Walter Cossar, dove grey flake collienne, with yoke of white satin ribbon and French stitchery, rosea green felt hat with autumn leaves on front of turned up brim; Mrs. H. Cossar, French grey voile, with white silk and ecru lace guimpe, grey felt hat with group of gray plumes drooping over side of brim; Mrs. McK. Geddes, rich black brocade gown, large black hat caught up at the sides with ostrich feathers; Mrs. Culpan, black brocade toilette, black net and satin ribbon corset, black bonnet with crimson roses; Mrs. McCallum, black voile, the sac coat being trimmed with black silk yak lace insertion, ecru point d'esprit blouse over silk, Leghorn hat with cream and black silk folds and spray of berries; Mrs. Le Queens, topaz yellow merveilleux silk blouse, black voile skirt and black and white picture hat; Mrs. Adams, grey flake voile, with white silk and lace yoke, large black hat swathed with white and black chenille spotted chiffon; Mrs. Sandes, black silk gown, white lace pelerine and black bonnet with touches of white; Mrs. Willie Cossar, black voile with tucked silk blouse, large white plateau hat with green grapes and leaves; Mrs. Gaudin, black Ottoman silk, cream lace stole collar and black bonnet with cream roses; Mrs. F. Gaudin, French blue collienne with three tier skirt edged with cream lace applique and cream lace vest with touches of emerald green velvet, blue and green hat; Miss Cooke, navy canvas voile faced with white cloth, ecru lace blouse, navy Bretonne hat swathed with scarlet arophone and cream and pink chine ribbon; Mrs. Thwaites, black voile with silk blouse, black hat with sprays of lilac; Mrs. Me-

INDIGESTION AND HEADACHE.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER CURED BY BILE BEANS.

"We feel it our duty," say Mrs. and Miss Crowe, of 17 Richmond street, Christchurch, "to let you know the benefit we have derived from Bile Beans. We both suffered considerably with Indigestion and Headache, and found Bile Beans an excellent remedy for these complaints. They are all that they are professed to be, and are, undoubtedly, a reliable family medicine, which no home can afford to be without. We only hope our experience may be the means of putting fellow-sufferers on the right road to recovered health." Bile Beans are a safe and speedy cure for Biliousness, Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Piles, Debility, Female Weakness, Nervousness, Bad Blood, Bad Breath, Anaemia, Disturbed Sleep, Loss of Appetite, Rheumatism, and, in fact, all ailments that owe their origin to defective bile flow, assimilation and digestion. At this trying season no home should be without a box. Bile Beans are obtainable from all Chemists and Stores, price 1/11 or 2/9 large box. The large size, being more economical, is especially recommended for general family use.
