LARGE AFTERNOON TEA

on Thursday as a farewell to Miss Hargreaves, who leaves for England this week, when, beside the Misses Hargreaves, others invited were Mrs K. Garrick, Mrs R. E. McDougall, Mrs Hume, Mrs V. Hargreaves, the Misses Anderson, Molineaux, Turner, Meares, Nancarrow, Martin, etc.

A DELIGHTFUL AFTERNOON TEA

was given by the Misses Louisson to their girl friends on the same day at their residence, Colombo-street. It was something novel in the way of a "Heart Hunt" party, and after a very dainty afternoon tea, which was served in the dining-room, a gong was sounded, and there was a general scramble to see how many hearts one could find. These were cut out of silver paper and hidden in drawing-room, hall and breakfast-room, behind pictures, in vases, and every imaginable place. Mrs Louisson wore a lovely black silk canvas over white glace, trimmed with green; Mrs L. Hayman (Wellington), black crepe de chine, tucked and trimmed with lace and insertion; Miss Louisson, sweetly pretty cream voile and pale blue choux; Miss Mabel Louisson, cream voile, tucked and trimmed with lace and insertion. Among the guests were Misses H. Denniston, Harley, Mathias, Humphreys, Waymouth (2), Brett (2), Webb (Wellington), McClatchie (2), Bullen (2), Merton (2), Symes, E. Wilson, Harris, M. Bruce, Nancarrow, Thomas (2), H. Rossell, Berkeley, Harman, G. Thomas, Steele, Bickerton-Fisher, Morris, and others. Miss Thomas won the first prize with 31 hearts; she was presented with a very pretty cut-glass and silver powder box. Miss Steele came second, and received a cut-glass and silver hair-pin box.

Mrs. Haslam gave a charming

last week at her residence, Riccarton, songs and music being contributed by Mrs. Denniston, Mrs. Wilding, Miss Meares, and Mrs. Haslam herself. A delicious afternoon tea was dispensed in the dining-room, and an altogether pleasant time spent, though it was principally given for Colonel and Mrs. Garnet, who are travelling about New Zealand and were prevented through illness from being present. Among the guests were Mrs. and Miss Julius, Mrs. Wilson (Norfolk Island), the Rev. C. H. and Miss Moreland, Mr. Mrs. and the Misses Neave, Mr. Justice Denniston and Miss Denniston, Mrs. Vernon, Mrs. and Miss Moorhouse, Mrs. Gould, Mrs. Reeves, Mrs. Chilton, Mrs. R. J. Scott, Mrs. Winter, Mrs. and Miss Hannah, Mrs. Andrews, and others.

A very pleasant afternoon was spent at "Tokomaru," the residence of Dr. Jennings, Gloucester street, when Mrs. Jennings was "At Home." A large number of guests were present and enjoyed the lovely day, some playing croquet, others listening to music in the drawing-room, and all regaled between times with delicious hot tea and coffee and other dainties. Some of those present were: Mrs. Denniston, in green and white striped canvas, black hat; Mrs. Haslam, black and white foulard, black hat; Mrs. L. Gibbs, champagne voile, red hat; Mrs. H. Wood, black and white flecked costume, black hat, relieved with white; Mrs. W. Reece, black costume, relieved with white; Mrs. G. Merton, biscuit-coloured matisin, red hat; Mrs. H. Rose, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. H. O. D. Meares, Mrs. R. D. Thomas, Chilton, A. Anderson, Beales, Wilson, Hume, Tonks, W. Ollivier, Molineaux, Talbot, Cobham, Misses Martin, Meares, Nedwill, Bullock, etc.

The people of Hanmer are making a great effort to keep up with the times. A rifle club has recently been formed there, and at the opening of the range Mr. E. Acton-Adams, wife of the captain and promoter of the club, fired the first shot and afterwards provided afternoon tea on the grounds. In the evening a dinner was held at Jollies Pass Hotel.

Mrs. T. O. Hay (Pigeon Bay) has invited a large house party for Easter, leaving Christchurch on Thursday evening and staying over Tuesday. The hospitality of the Pigeon Bay homestead is proverbial, and anticipations run high among those lucky enough to be invited.

DOLLY VALE.

ULCERATED WOUNDS FOR SEVEN YEARS.

PROMPTLY HEALED BY ZAM-BUK.

"While working on the Spring Creek Diggings," says Mr J. B. Harpur, of Carthage-street, Tamworth, N.S.W., "a particle of stone flew and struck me on the face. The wound became ulcerated, exuded a continual flow of matter, and would not heal. The wound remained thus for about seven years, although during that time I applied many ointments and lotions advertised, but which failed entirely. Zam-Buk was brought under my notice, and I purchased a pot. The result of the first few applications was a revelation of Zam-Buk's healing and soothing qualities, and before the pot was finished the wound was quite healed. I will never miss an opportunity of recommending Zam-Buk as an invaluable healing balm." Zam-Buk, the Great Herbal Healing Balm, is a speedy cure for Piles, Ringworm, Eczema, Boils, Running Sores, Sore legs, Barsoes, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Etc. As an embrocation for Strained Muscles and Tendons Zam-Buk, rubbed well into the parts affected, is unequalled. As a Household Balm for Cuts, Burns, Bruises, Pimples, Sunburn, Freckles, Prickly Heat, Blackheads, Sore Feet and Rough Skin, Zam-Buk is invaluable. From all medicine vendors. PRICE 1/6 or 3/6 LARGE POT (containing nearly four times the quantity for GENERAL FAMILY USE), or direct from the Zam-Buk Co., Pitt-st., Sydney.
