PALMER-BROWNE.

The marriage of Mr C. E. Palmer, Auckland manager of the Australia Alliance Insurance Company and Norwich and London Association, and Miss Zealia Browne, youngest daughter of Mr James Browne, was quietly solemnised on June 21, at the residence of the bride's father, Ponsonby-road, Auckland. The Rev. R. F. Macneil officiated. The bride was given away by her father. She looked graceful and winsome in a beautifully-made dress of champagne-tinted canvas voile made over white glace silk, the bodice handsomely trimmed and hand-stitched, and relieved with a touch of violet. She also wore a stylish hat to correspond, trimmed with violet silk velvet, and a long violet ostrich feather, and carried a beautiful shower bouquet. She was attended by her sister, Miss Maggie Browne, who was tastefully attired in a stylish creme serge dress, and pretty hat. The bridegroom's gift to her was a lovely pearl star pendant and brooch to match. Mr J. Alexander was best man. After receiving the congratulations of their friends, Mr and Mrs Palmer departed via West Coast, for a tour in the South. The bride's travelling costume was a smart navy blue cloth and white felt hat wreathed with violets. The high esteem in which the young couple are held was shown by the large and valuable collection of wedding presents received.

MEREDITH-TAIT.

On the 20th ult., at the Hastings Presbyterian Church, Hawke's Bay, the marriage took place of Mr H. H. Meredith, of Hastings, Hawke's Bay, and Miss Marjory Tait, also of Hastings. The bride was given away by her brother, and wore a dress of rich cream silk, the bodice trimmed with cream silk embroidery. She carried a bouquet of white roses and jonquils, and wore a gold guard chain, the gift of the bridegroom. The bridesmaids wore dresses of white muslin with bodices of white accordion-pleated silk, trimmed with satin ribbons, and hats en suite. The bridesmaids were Miss Patience Tait (sister of the bride) and Miss Maggie Elliott. Mr W. H. Beck acted as best man. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. J. Comrie. The guests were afterwards entertained and the bride and bridegroom subsequently left for the South. The bride went away in a dress of grey and white flaked tweed, trimmed with white cloth and steel buttons, grey felt hat with white accordion-pleated silk and white ospreys.
