INDIGESTION FOR YEARS.

Bile Beans Prove the Remedy.

Indigestion comprises many ailments, has many varied symptoms. Pain after food, relieved slightly when wind is rifted; a feeling of sickness if awakened suddenly; headache; a bad taste in the mouth; the recurrence of food; heartburn; sleeplessness;—all these, or any of them, may be present. They all mean that the digestive organs are out of order, and need a little help to get them equal to their work. Bile Beans give that help and tone up the digestive organs, so that they can do their work properly. Mrs E. E. Barrett, of Dampier Bay, West Lyttelton, N.Z., says:—"As a remedy for indigestion I consider Bile Beans would be hard to surpass. For years on and off I have been a sufferer with this distressing complaint, and the agony it occasioned at times was terrible. On the advice of a friend I took Bile Beans and they gave me instant relief. I also use Bile Beans as our general family medicine and find them suitable in every way." "AN EXCELLENT FAMILY MEDICINE," says "SCIENCE SIGHTINGS."

HEALTH HINTS FOR RHEUMATISM.

Just plays an important part in Rheumatism, Gout, Sciatica, Lumbago, and kindred complaints. Those troubled with these diseases should be careful for some foods encourage the formation of uric acid. Avoid red meats, use vinegar, spices, tea, and coffee sparingly, and—most important of all—take RHEUMO. It is the one medicine that will quickly and effectually cure Rheumatism, Gout, Sciatica, Lumbago, and their attendant evils. The first dose of RHEUMO gives relief, and its use will be found to effect a complete cure. Your chemist or storekeeper sells it, 2/6 and 4/6 a bottle. Give it a trial.

where Mr and Mrs Saywell held a reception, and Mr. and Mrs Burt received the congratulations of their friends. The wedding breakfast was served in a large marquee erected on the lawn, when about 80 guests sat down, and the usual toasts were honoured. A string band supplied the music. The wedding presents, which were very handsome, were displayed in the drawing-room. At the conclusion of the breakfast the bride and bridegroom left for their honeymoon, which was spent at Mount Victoria and Jemolan Caves. Mrs Burt travelled in a plum-coloured cloth costume, trimmed with velvet to match, and finished with white kid; white felt hat, trimmed with brown tulle and wine-coloured roses, and sable fur and muff. Among some of the smart dresses worn by the guests were—Mrs Gibb, handsome black silk lace over a silk foundation, with toque en suite; Mrs Maier, cousin of the bridegroom, black tulle-tras with touches of white; Mrs R. Pollock (Balm'n East) was stylishly attired in petunia trimmed with a darker tone of velvet and white kid, and a pretty hat in two shades of petunia; Mrs Kenwood wore a black and white silk costume.

HOWELL—RICHARDSON.

The many friends of Miss Rebecca Richardson, daughter of Mr. C. T. Richardson (Wellington), are very interested to hear of her marriage to Mr. J. G. Howell, jun., writes our Wellington correspondent. The ceremony took place at St. Mark's Church, Berkeley, California, on March 24th. Miss "Robt" Richardson was very pretty and popular, and in addition she showed marked talent as an elocutionist. It was in order to obtain further training in the art that she went to the United States, travelling under the guidance of her teacher, Mrs. Lott, who was returning to California after a residence of a few years in Wellington.
