Nominations were taken for the Trial Stakes, a weight-for-age back event on the Weilington Race Club's white meeting programme, at the same time as for the heading events. The Australianbred Fontency, by Haut Brion, was one of the number. Since the date of nomination he has shown such vasily improved form that he looks to have a great chance of berting anything that is likely to oppes, fun in that particular event. There are however, a number of young horses, some of which may also show out in improved form.

PAKURANGA HUNT CLUB.

The Pakuranga limit Chub met hast Sat-arday at Humata. The day was splendid for huming purposes, and a large number of followers were present. During the afternoon three runs contanted, the first two, however, were not of very long dura-tice, and in each case a kill resulted. The third hare put up gave the followers a neary chase across several fields, eventu-ally severating in the scola country. Next Weinessiay the bounds mer at the laka-rang aschot, and on the following Satur-day at Hampton Park.
