BILIOUSNESS FOR MANY YEARS.

Bile Beans Prove a Blessing.

When you are bilious, every thought of food is nauseous. When the room gets warm, you feel as if you were going to be sick. If you hurry to catch a car or a train, there is the feeling again. Headaches, turning off with sickness, a nasty coated tongue are other symptoms of Biliousness, and a symptom most distressing to the female sex is the fearful green-yellow colour which the face comes to have, if Biliousness is allowed to continue. All this arises from misdirected bile, which is due, primarily, to improper liver action. Mr. R. Wrigley, of Mirastreet, off Lincoln-road, Ponsobny, Auckland, says: "I have been a sufferer with Biliousness, accompanied by sick headache, for many years, and tried many so-called remedies in the hope of being rid of them, but without success. Twelve months ago I decided to give Bile Beans a trial. An improvement was noticeable after the first few doses, and continuing the course, I was thoroughly cured. Bile Beans are without doubt a first-class remedy for Biliousness and kindred ills. Their action is gentle, yet effective, and I can with confidence recommend them to fellow-sufferers." Bile Beans have a world-wide reputation as a proved cure in cases of Biliousness, Headache, Indigestion, Stomach Troubles, Constipation, Piles, Debility, Female Weaknesses, Nervousness, Bad Blood, Pimples and all skin eruptions, Bad Breath, Anaemia, Disturbed Sleep, Loss of Appetite, Rheumatism, and, in fact, all ailments that owe their origin to defective bile flow, assimilation, or digestion. Bile Beans are obtainable generally throughout New Zealand.

YANKOWICH-KEYVAR.

A Jewish wedding of some importance was celebrated at the residence of Mr. Whitefield, Devonport, by Rabbi Goldstein on Wednesday, April 4th, when Miss Rose Keyvar, daughter of Mr S. Keyvar, was married to Mr Jack Yankowich, son of H. L. Yankowich. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a dainty trained gown of cream silk chiffon, voile elaborately trimmed with silk lace and insertion and quilted ribbon. The bodice was made with a transparent vest of Valenciennes lace and silk insertion threaded with wide ribbon. She wore the orthodox veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a lovely shower bouquet tied with satin ribbon streamers. The bridesmaids were Miss Annie Keyvar (sister of the bride), Miss Annie Phillips, and the Misses Pearl Whitefield and Essie Arnoldson. Miss Keyvar was attired in a pale pink voile, prettily trimmed with Valenciennes lace and guipure over satin, becoming pale blue satin straw hat trimmed with pink roses and tulle. Miss A. Phillips was gowned in cream silk voile prettily trimmed with lace and insertion, cream felt hat trimmed with blue velvet, ribbon and wings. Miss Keyvar and Miss Phillips both carried crooks, with tiny bells, flowers, and ribbon attached. The Misses Whitefield and Arnoldson wore pretty little pale blue silk frocks trimmed with lace and wreaths and veils, and they carried charming baskets of flowers. The bridegroom's present to the bride was a dressing case with silver fittings, and to the bridesmaids, crocodile skin purses to the elder ones, a gold necklet with heart pendant to Miss A. Whitefield, and a gold brooch to Miss Essie Arnoldson. Mr J. Whitefield attended the bridegroom as best man. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held, at which eighty people were entertained. The health of the bride and bridegroom was drunk in wine especially imported from Palestine for the occasion.

Mrs Keyvar's gown was a handsome black brocade trimmed with silk applique over white glace, bodice trimmed with black and white chiffon lace, black toque with feathers, and grey ostrich boa. Amongst the guests were: Mrs J. Whitefield, who wore black silk with cream medallion trimming, cream chiffon hat with ostrich feathers; Mrs F. E. Baume, grey costume with dark green facing, toque of black lace; Mrs W. Neumege, cream dress with lace encrustations, cream hat; Mrs C. Cowan, black brocade silk, black and white hat; Miss Mabel Cowan, pale blue silk, cream Empire coat, blue hat garlanded with geraniums; Miss R. Possenniskie, navy blue dress, lace and glace trimmings, hat to match; Mrs N. Goldwater, black silk, with Maltese lace collar, black bonnet; Mrs Lewis, black corded silk, hat to match; Mrs Hyams, blue and white tweed dress finished with lace, white hat; Mrs Neumege, senr., black silk with chiffon trimmings; Mrs Parker, black silk skirt, and pretty silk blouse; Mrs I. Kahn (sister of the bride), pale pink silk finished with lace and frills edged with black velvet, black chenille hat; Mrs N. Phillips, black costume with white silk vest, black hat; Mrs Goldstein, pretty black voile skirt and silk blouse, black hat; Miss Quinn, cream serge costume, Empire coat, blue hat with pink roses; Miss Wiltford, black voile skirt, green silk blouse, finished with white; Mrs J. Spitz, brown dress with white silk trimmings, brown hat to match; Mrs B. Spitz, black skirt and pretty white silk blouse; Mrs Marshall, effective black silk dress; Mrs. Wilson, black costume and hat to match; Mrs. Lindsay, navy blue toilette; Mrs. Cohen, black dress, cream lace vest; Miss D. Cohen, black skirt and blue silk blouse, beaver coat; Miss B. Cohen, black skirt and white silk blouse. During the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Yankowich left on their honeymoon trip, the bride wearing a black voile travelling gown, trimmed with cream lace and satin, and a long fur coat, black hat, finished with ostrich feathers and chiffon. Mr. and Mrs. Yankowich were the recipients of many beautiful wedding presents, amongst them being: Mr. and Mrs. S. Keyvar (bride's mother), beautiful silver dinner gong, bamboo stand, bronze inkstand, handsome cushion, cutlery, etc.; Mr. and Mrs. T. Kahn (bride's sister), silver cruet, cut-glass bottles; Miss A. Keyvar (sister of bride), beautiful pair of hand-painted cake dishes; Mr. and Mrs. J. Whitefield, lovely hand-painted satin mantel drape, beautiful fringe; Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Baume, M.H.R., set of silver-mounted carvers, in handsome case; Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Possenniskie, handsome pair of large figures; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Moses, pair hand-painted vases; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Neumege, half-dozen silver teaspoons and sugar tongs, in case; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Neumege, beautiful pair of bronze figures; Mrs. Nathan Phillips, pair silver candlesticks, beautifully worked; Miss A. Phillips, silver-back brush and comb; Mr. and Mrs. C. Cowan, very large handsome hand-painted picture, beautifully framed; Miss M. Cowan, handsome satin and plush hand-painted cushion; Mr. and Mrs. Goldstein, half-dozen dinner knives; Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Goldwater, set of three large cut-glass cake dishes; Mr. D. T. Goldwater, set of very pretty jugs; Miss Wiltford, pair vases; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, silver-mounted biscuit barrel; Mr. and Mrs. Potter, silver-mounted biscuit barrel; Mrs. Hyams, silver stand butter dish; Mr. and Mrs. Arnoldson, beautiful tea set of 40 pieces; Mr. and Mrs. B. Spitz, pair hand-painted vases; Mr. and Mrs. L. Spitz, silver stand jam dish; Mrs. Cohen, pearl handle pickle fork and silver tea strainer; Mr. Glass, pair of salt cellars in silver stands; Mrs. Solomon, cheese dish; Mr. J. Cohen, pair of very pretty pictures; Messrs. Kahn Bros., beautiful pair of hand-painted mirrors; Mrs. Wilson, half-dozen afternoon teaspoons and tongs and half-dozen small knives; Mr. Walters, pair vases; and the firm where bridegroom is employed presented him with a handsome marble clock.

BREWER-DINWIDDIE.

A wedding which excited considerable attention was solemnized at the Napier Cathedral on the 18th April, when Miss Mary Dinwiddie, third daughter of Mr. Peter Dinwiddie, of Napier, was married to Mr. Henry Douglas Woodford Brewer, now of Dunedin, but formerly of Napier. The Rev. Canon Mayne, assisted by the Rev. C. L. Lake, performed the ceremony. Miss Dinwiddie (sister of the bride), Miss Brewer (sister of the bridegroom), Miss Mary Grogan (niece of the bride), and Miss Edlie Mayne acted as bridesmaids. Mr. S. Lyman (of Gisborne) was best man, and Mr. E. Dinwiddie was groomsmen. The bride was attired in a lovely dress of white chiffon taffeta, trimmed with lace and insertion, and wore a lace berthe and veil with orange blossoms. The bridesmaids wore soft white muslin and lace frocks, trimmed with chiffon; becoming pale blue muslin picture hats. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Brewer left by train for the South, Mrs. Brewer wearing a smart Harris tweed tailor-made coat and skirt and navy blue toque.
