

CARS BEGINNING TO "PILE UP."

EVEN THE RAIN DID NOT DAMP THE ABHOR OF THE SPECTATORS.

See "Our Illustrations."

On November 14, the simmering discontent among the motormen and conductors, caused by the dismissal of two conductors, broke out, and the men left the cars in a body, traffic being practically suspended from about five o'clock to shortly before eight p.m., when their demands were conceded.

THE POLICE HAVE TO REMONSTRATE WITH THE TOO ENTHUSIASTIC CROWD.

A LIVELY SPOT: THE BLOCK IN CUSTOMS-STREET EAST.

THE RECENT TRAMWAY DIFFICULTY IN AUCKLAND.