

Christmas Bells will soon be ringing, Buy your Presents now.

There is nothing like being in good time. You get the pick and must naturally feel better satisfied with your selection than if you come with the crowd at the last minute. We think our variety of things worthy of giving is better and more complete this Christmas than in any former year, but we would be more satisfied with your opinion if you came early and had a good look round. If you live outside Auckland, or if you live near at hand but cannot spare the time to come in, ask us to send a copy of our special Xmas Book. Its pages are packed with illustrations, descriptions, and prices of good values in Christmassy things.
