

ed muslin, with insertion and frills; Mrs Patterson, primrose silk blouse, black silk skirt and pretty cream coat; Mrs Smith, white Persian lawn, trimmed with lace; Mrs Trimmer, mauve figured blouse, black skirt; Mrs Turner, pale blue blouse, grey skirt and Royal blue coat; Mrs Thompson, pale blue check gown, pastel grey coat; Mrs Wright, black tucked chiffon over glace silk; Mrs Winter, black silk gown, with cream lace yoke; Miss Ashman, white book-muslin, inset with Anglaise broderie; Miss Anderson, black velvet, and Limerick lace berthe; Miss Benner, very pale pink silk blouse, black cloth skirt; Miss Banks, cream Indian muslin, with lace and frills; Miss Baker, blue silk blouse, black cloth skirt; Miss B. Baker, white silk, with touches of blue, blue coat; Miss L. Bagnall (Auckland), white silk blouse, black skirt; Misses E. and S. Bagnall (Turua), soft cream dresses; Miss E. Bagnall, dainty white silk blouse, black voile skirt; Miss A. Hunter (Napier), pink tussora silk blouse, black silk skirt; Miss Fagan, cream alpaca, finished with Valenciennes; Miss N. Gibson, white book muslin; Miss Gillespie, blue and white floral blouse, black skirt; Miss E. Gillespie, white silk; Miss McGee, white silk, finished with silk embroidery and lace; Miss McEldan, delicate pink silk de-laine blouse, with handsome lace collar-ette, black skirt; Miss Driver, pretty cream silk blouse, black cloth skirt; Miss McQuade, effective blue blouse, smart black skirt; Miss I. Read, white silk blouse, black skirt, and dainty cream coat; Miss Lucas, very pretty Paris net blouse, black voile skirt, and pink broadened cape; Miss Kilgour, white silk blouse, black skirt; Miss Walsh, cream voile; Miss Watson, white silk blouse, pretty black voile skirt; Miss C. Watson, white silk blouse, black skirt; Miss S. Gibbons, white; Miss Rae, pink silk blouse, grey skirt.

DOROTHY.

CAMBRIDGE.

Dear Bee. May 18.

On Tuesday evening
A MOST ENJOYABLE CONCERT

was given by Mrs Isherwood's pupils at her residence "Waterside" before a large gathering of parents and friends. The programme was as under:—Pianoforte duet by Miss Brindle and Mrs Isherwood; song by Miss Hill; pianoforte duet by Miss McKay and Mrs Isherwood; song by Mr Peake; pianoforte duet, Miss M. Allen and Mrs Isherwood; vocal duet, Miss Watt and Mrs Isherwood; pianoforte solo, Miss Morgan; vocal duet, Miss McElwain and Mrs Isherwood; pianoforte duet, Miss O. Allen and Mrs Isherwood; vocal duet, Miss Hally and Mr Isherwood; pianoforte duet, Miss Ruge and Mrs Isherwood; song, Miss McElwain; pianoforte solo, Miss Lake; song, Mr Court; vocal duet, Miss Hall and Mrs Isherwood; pianoforte solo, Miss Brindle; song, Mr Isherwood. Mrs Isherwood's little twin girls sang a duet very prettily. A dainty supper brought a very pleasant evening to an end.

A committee of twenty ladies promoted

A GIFT EVENING

for Miss Effie Willis, who is to be married next week. The event took place in St. Andrew's Sunday School on Friday evening, and was a pronounced success. The committee had made a transformation at the school. The windows were all decorated with nikau palms, and at one end of the room stood a huge fern tree, under which was a table where the gifts were all arranged as they arrived. Carpets and rugs were spread upon the floor, and comfortable easy-chairs took the place of forms. All kinds of bush greenery, autumn leaves and chrysanthemums lent brightness to the room. Archdeacon and Mrs Willis and family were received as they entered the room, and Mrs Taylor, on behalf of the committee, presented Miss Effie Willis with a lovely bouquet, which was made by Miss Wells. The committee's gifts had been left in their wrappings and hung up round the room, and everybody had to guess the contents. Mrs L. Peake was the winner of the ladies prize, a silver shoehorn, and Mr Selby of the gentlemen's, a silver purse. Musical items were given during the evening by Messames Isherwood and Pilcher, Miss Gillingham (Devonport), Messers Lusk and Farnalk. Delicious sweets were passed round during the evening, and a very dainty supper was served later on. Before closing, Mrs Wells said a few words on behalf of the committee of the pleasure it had given them all to be able to have the gathering and meet the bride-elect once more. Archdeacon Willis returned thanks on behalf of his daughter for the great kindness of those present in arranging the gathering, and for the lovely presents given her. Mrs Willis was wearing a rich black silk with cream lace scarf; Miss Effie Willis, pale grey chiffon taffeta with fichu of white Valenciennes lace, bouquet of pink chrysanthemums and maidenhair fern, pink roses in coiffure; Mrs Willis, pale blue silk blouse with transparent yoke of point lace; Miss C. Willis, black Louise silk with cream lace yoke and scarf of pale pink crepe de chine; Miss K. Willis, pale grey lace silk blouse relieved with black velvet and grey voile skirt; Mrs Taylor, black silk and net gown and spray of violets and maidenhair fern on corsage; Mrs Hally, old rose chiffon taffeta blouse with cream lace yoke and black silk skirt; Mrs McCullagh, white silk blouse and black voile skirt; Mrs Lyons-Montgomery, a very dainty frock of pale blue chiffon taffeta, full skirt and bodice trimmed with a bertha of silk applique and tiny pink roses, yoke of cream net; Mrs C. Hunter, black silk blouse with transparent yoke of black net, black silk voile skirt trimmed with satin ribbon; Mrs Buckland, black silk gown with vest and under sleeves of cream gauged silk; Mrs Wells, navy blue silk voile trimmed with navy and white silk applique; Mrs A. Stone, rich black silk with bertha of gold applique and lace; Mrs W. Thornton, pale heliotrope silk voile trimmed with a flounce of point lace, it was made over heliotrope glace; Mrs Martyn, black silk and handsome French grey coat trimmed with silver applique; Mrs Richardson, heliotrope silk blouse trimmed with cream lace; Mrs McDermott, black silk and lace dress; Mrs Bunyard, pale green and cream striped blouse and grey skirt; Mrs Wilkinson, white silk blouse, black skirt; Mrs A. Nairn, white silk; Mrs L. Rake, a lovely dress of white silk muslin over white glace and trimmed with white chiffon and ceinture of white glace silk; Mrs Roberts, white Brussels lace dress over white glace, and spray of carnations on corsage; Mrs G. Runciman, black canvas voile with cream lace yoke; Mrs Price, cream voile with spray of violets on corsage; Mrs Lundon, white silk blouse and black skirt; Mrs Hammond, blue silk blouse trimmed with black lace and black silk skirt; Mrs A. Sonter, white silk blouse and black silk skirt; Mrs A. H. Edmunds, black silk trimmed with point lace bertha; Mrs A. Gibbons, exceedingly pretty white embroidered silk frock; Mrs Isherwood, black silk voile trimmed with black glace; Mrs Dickenson, black silk and lace gown; Mrs Adams, black silk with transparent yoke of spotted net; Miss Banks, pink silk blouse and black skirt, long white cloak; Miss O'Halloran, black gown relieved with white lace; Miss Brigham, cream voile; Miss Brooks, white silk; Mrs Richardson, white silk frock; Miss Reid, white silk blouse and black skirt; Miss Hally, white Japanese erpe; Miss Taylor, pale blue tau-sore silk with transparent yoke of cream lace; Miss B. Taylor, white muslin; Mrs R. J. Roberts, black silk trimmed with spotted net; Miss Gillingham, peacock blue silk trimmed with cream lace; Miss Gwyneth, black silk trimmed with spangled black chiffon; Miss Gwyn Roberts, white embroidered muslin; Miss I. Lundon, white muslin; Miss Wells, pale pink silk blouse trimmed with cream lace medallions, and black velvet skirt; Miss H. Wells, black voile with cream lace yoke; Miss J. Frater (Auckland), cream silk; Miss M. Dunne, black Louise silk with cream lace yoke; Miss Russel, black voile; Mrs B. Reynolds, black silk and lace gown; Mrs H. Clark, white silk blouse and black skirt; Miss Clark, white silk; Miss Young, black silk blouse and black canvas voile skirt; Miss Ewen, pink silk blouse, black skirt; Miss K. Selby, crimson silk blouse and black skirt; Miss Selby, pale pink blouse, and black skirt; Mrs Pilcher, heliotrope silk blouse, black skirt; Miss D. Pilcher, white muslin; Miss M. Pilcher, white muslin; Miss J. Brown, black evening dress; Miss Hill, pale pink silk.

The lovely day on Wednesday attracted the largest number out since the opening day. Afternoon tea was presided over by Miss C. Willis, as-

TO GOLF

C-B. TAILOR-MADE C-B. CORSETS.
Are the most successful corset design ever created.

From 8/11 to 4 Guineas.

PUBLIC APPROVAL

C-B TAILOR MADE CORSETS

Wherever smartness and refined elegance hold sway, C.B. Tailor-Made Corsets are prominent.

In 50 different styles.

Light as air, yet guaranteed to outlast two ordinary corsets.

Obtainable in all styles from all Progressive stores in Australasia. If any difficulty in procuring the correct style, write for book of types to—

J. E. Newport, Sons & Co. Filadara Lane, A. B. Witter, York Street, Sydney, Melbourne
J. Bunting, Hobson Street, Auckland.

Miss KELLERMANN (the Lady Champion Swimmer) writes of

CADBURY'S Milk Chocolate

Says: "I find it more nourishing and sustaining than any other."

All who have tried it speak in equally high praise of its sterling qualities. It is the ideal food for persons of all ages and occupations. It is agreeable and convenient to take, and gives substantial benefit to the muscular and nervous system. At the same time it can be absorbed with little digestive effort.

Manufactured by clean-handed, healthy employees in sweet, clean and airy workrooms at the beautiful Garden City of Bourneville, founded by the manufacturers of

Cadbury's Cocoa

of which The Lowest says:—It is "The Standard of Highest Purity," while Health calls it "A Perfect Food."

By Appointment to H.M. The King and H.R.H. The Prince of Wales.

CEREBOS SALT

"THE HOSPITAL," London, October 13th, 1906, says:— "It has an elegant appearance, white and granular, like sifted sugar, and is certainly one of the damnest and most highly priced articles on the table. In warm climates it is useful on account of its not readily clogging."

Agents—D. Nathan & Co., Ltd., Auckland.

THE NATIONAL MUTUAL LIFE ASSOCIATION OF AUSTRALASIA, Ltd.

HEAD OFFICE FOR NEW ZEALAND—CUSTOMHOUSE QUAY, WELLINGTON.

FUNDS, over - - - £4,478,000
ANNUAL INCOME, nearly - - - £824,000

Rates Low. MONEY TO LEND ON FREEHOLD PROPERTY. AGENCIES THROUGHOUT THE COLONY.

Bonus Large.

SEND FOR PROSPECTUS.

J. KEW HARTY, DISTRICT MANAGER, QUEEN STREET, AUCKLAND.

ORTON STEVENS, Manager for New Zealand.