AUCKLAND.

Dear Bee, December 3. Saturday.

PEOPLE'S DAY AT THE AUCKLAND SHOW.

was an absolutely perfect day, and the crowd at Alexandra Park was the biggest I have seen for a very long time. A big crowd is always interesting, and this was a daintily-dressed and well-groomed one; in fact, the whole effect was brilliant, and well worth the trouble we had to get to it. Of course we wandered round and looked at the animals. The horses were lovely, and filled one's heart with envy, hatred, and all uncharitableness; the others did not interest us so much, though we examined them all, and pretended we knew something about them. To describe costumes was quite impossible; it was hard to see your friends, let alone to see what they wore.

The 129th open evening given by pupils of the

took place on Friday evening, at St. Andrew's Hall. The programme was classical and highly interesting. The opening piano quartet, "Allegro from Symphony C Major" (Schubert), by Misses V. Henderson, A. Dawson, J. Little, and Mrs. Worthington, was a very fine performance.

The duo "Carneval" (L. Schytte), by Misses Augusta Roche and Maud Anderson, L.A.B., was rendered with fine ensemble. The "Allegro" from Beethoven's "Concerto in C Minor," for two pianos, played from memory, was a masterly performance by Misses Gertrude Spooner and Madeline Webbe, for which the young ladies were recalled. The solos, "Humoresque" (Coleridge Taylor), by Miss Dorothy Nicol, and "Le Temps" (Graham P. Moore), by Miss Dorothy Henderson, were both excellently played. Mr. Alfred Eady gave a delightful interpretation of Schumann's "Arabesque." Miss Maud Anderson played Henselt's "Si Oiseau jetais" with charming expression, and gave a fine interpretation of Chopin's extremely difficult "Revolutionary Etude." Misses Bertha Cleave and Nellie Tizard played expressively solos by Karl Elzer, Grieg, Graham P. Moore, and S. Heller. All the solos were played from memory. The little pupils, Miss Hermia Morris, in a solo, and Miss Margaret Carr and Master Allister Clark in a duo for two pianos, acquitted themselves exceedingly well. The piano quartet, "Mazurka" (Schulhoff), Misses (J. Ehrman, D. Hamilton, M. Fox, R. Carlaw; "Marche Nuptiale" (Schmidt), Misses M. Message, P. Mackie, A. Fuller, P. Payne; "Bal Masque" (Rubinstein), Misses N. Fowler, E. Fuller, A. Jayvons, L. Paterson; "Iphigene in Aulis" (Gluck), Misses S. Hamilton, E. Beckett, H. Mackay, L. Cleave; and the duo for two pianos, "Serenade Espagnole" (Mildred), Misses Olive Clarke and Ethel Laurie, were very satisfactory performances. The ensemble, accents, and tempo were excellent throughout. Miss Peggy Bain deservedly received quite an ovation for her artistic interpretation of "Ave Maria" (Schubert-Wilhelm) and "Zigeunerweisen" (Sarasate). Miss B. Garland's vocal items were highly appreciated. A most successful recital was brought to a close by a capable performance of "Die Felsenmühle" (Reisiger), by Misses V. McEwain, M. Fuller, J. Webster, A. Webbe. The accompaniments were played by Miss Madeline Webbe and Mr. W. H. Webbe.

On Wednesday afternoon we went out to the

to be present at the unveiling of the Memorial tablet, erected by the ex-members of the Second Contingent, in honour of those of their comrades who lost their lives in the South African war in the service of their King and Country. In the absence of the Governor (who had hoped to be present) the Mayor, Mr. Arthur Myers, performed the ceremony, making one of his usual felicitous speeches. Colonel Davies also spoke and said that though he had not fought with the "Second," he knew all about them, and could say they were an honour to the country for which they appeared in the field. A full-sized billiard table was also presented to the Home by the "Second," and this was opened by Mr. Myers, who played the first game with one of the inmates.
