

GLENCRAIGIE NGAHARANGA GORGE, NEAR WELLINGTON.

Bought at a cost of some £3,000 for a municipal abattoir. The buildings were held as a fort by the invading volunteers who "captured" Wellington.

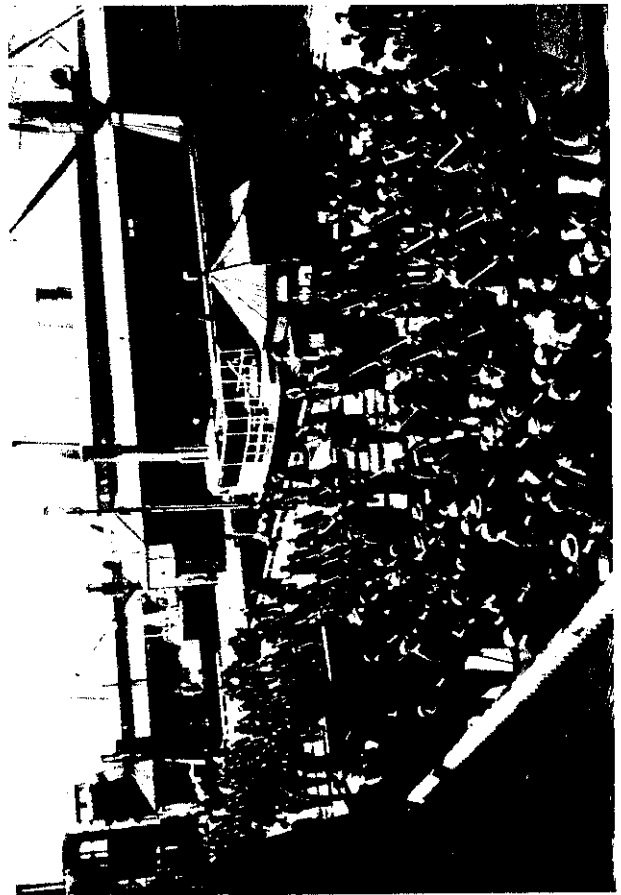

GENERAL VIEW OF THE RISING TOWNSHIP OF JOHNSONVILLE, NEAR WELLINGTON.

Muir and Mackenzie, photo.

NATIONAL LEAGUE OF N.Z. FIRST CONFERENCE OF DELEGATES HELD IN WELLINGTON.

Back Row: Capt. Balthrop, F. G. Kinsey, Capt. McNaught, H. C. Robinson, H. H. Boddington, J. H. Bennett, H. P. Stinson, Front Row: J. Woolley, Lieut.-Colonel Goring, Dr. Monistone, Dr. J. J. Bishop, J. P. Piria, R. B. Tuckwell, C. P. Munro, A. Hosking, Serjeant Booth.

THE "BLUE" CONTINGENT OF WELLINGTON VOLUNTEERS (WHO CAPTURED THE CITY) ON THE WHARF.