

"Great things of Korld are built in them way," I corrode for dignity.
 "Southern Pacific Railway were not built in them way, you can bet it," say Irish.
 "It will be a cheap way to travel in future," I nudge.
 "It are not cheap way to travel in present," reery that Hon. Irish. "By counting up all axidents, break-ups, re-fu-als to go, unwillingness to stay up when started there, etc. it are com-puted by Scientists that airships has cost 1000 dol. for every yard they has flew through air."
 "Such an expensive car-fare!" I de-range.
 "Rates like them should be regulated by Congress," negotiate Hon. Irish, col-lecting together fractional pieces of air-ship what was strewed apart over hill-side.

The Sunday school teacher was pos-sessed of the praiseworthy deshe to pro-mote thrift among the class of lads. He had given Bill and Johnny sixpence each for doing some work for him.
 "I hope to hear, when we meet again," he said, "that you have used the money to advantage."
 The next time they met, Bill produced two sixpences.
 "Well done, my lad," said the delighted teacher: "I am pleased to see my lessons are having their fruits. But what of your sixpence, Johnny?" said he to the other hopeful.
 "Please, sir, I lost it tossin' wi' Bill!"
