enghly enjoyed themselves. It was a capital night for dancing, and there has been rather a luli in entertainments capital night for dancing, and there has been rather a luli in entertainments lately, so everyone was fresh and keenly energetic. Arums, rhododendrons, and guelder coses were the flowers used in the summer-room, strands of red ribbon also doing excellent service. Outside, the verandsh and the garden provided picturesque sittingout places, the darkness made visible by fairy lanterns. Mrs Bristow wore white taffetas, with an overdress of black lace, hemmed with velvet; Miss Bristow, white ninon de soie, with an Empire belt of taffetas; Mrs Milward (Wanganui), black chiffon taffetas and lace; Mrs Mosa, asure blue silk, lace berthe, belt of gold tissue; Mrs T, Milward, heliotrope radium silk, with bands of velvet and draperies of lace; Mrs Grey, black chiffon with a floral design over opal iridescent taffetas; Mrs Appleton (Melbourne), white marquisette, with silver and lace sheeves and the silver and lace; Miss Wilson, ivory chiffon taffetas and lace; Miss Wilson, ivory chiffon taffetas and lace; Miss Miss McKerras (Dunedin), black crepe de chine, and lace sleeves and vest and pale blue belt; Miss Nathan, white mousseline de soie and lace; Miss Miss Miss Miss Nathan, white mousseline de soie and lace; Miss Miles, opal chiffon taffetas.

DANCE AT SAYES COURT.

DANCE AT SAYES COURT.

Sayes Court was the scene of a delightful dance on Friday last, when Mrs H. D. Bell was the hostess. It is a capital house for entertaining, and the two big rooms connected by folding doors gave plendid space for dancing. Lilies of the valley made a fairy-like decoration for the supper tables, and roses and sweet peas in profusion were clear proof that summer is on us. In the ball-room were tall jars of arum Hiles and fragrant branches of lilac, white masses of Japanese plum appeared in the sitting-out rooms. Mrs Bell wore a handsome brocade in faint hydrangea colouring: Miss Bell, white ninon de soie, with a silvet belt; Miss V. Bell, primpose charmeuse, with draperies of lace; Mrs. H. Johnston, pastet chiffon taffetas, and lace berthe; Mrs. H. Rolleston, black and white radium silk, with vest and sleeves of lace; Mrs. V. Riddiford, petal pink charmeuse, with lace sleeves and an Empire belt; Mrs. A. Duncan, amber taffetas, with a note of blue on the delicate embroideries; Mrs. Dalziell, ivory satin and Brussels lace; Mrs. Walter Johnston, a lovely Empire dress of ivory lace over chiffon; Mrs. Von Zedlitz, sky blue messaline, with lace sleeves; Mrs. Colbeck (Auckland), floral chiffon, with delicate lace; Mrs. C. Pharazyn (Featherston), ivory satin with pale blue belt and lace scarf; Miss D. Johnston, pink and white chine silk; Miss Duncan, ivory charmeuse, softly draped with lace; Miss Hislop, white mousseline de soie, with silver belt.

PERSONAL ITEMS.

Mrs. Alley, who has been here for some weeks negotiating with the Government about a mail subsidy for the Alley Line, running between Canada and New Zealand, is returning to Canada, and was a passenger by the last steamer for Sydney.

Mr. and Miss Skerrett, who have been some time in Australia for a holiday jaunt, are at present in Melbourne, where they will stay to see the Cup run.

Miss Q. Nelson (Auckland) is here for a visit to her aunt, Miss Coates, Miss Elsie Watson has returned from a four months' stay in Sydney.

Miss Horton (Auckland) is the guest of Miss Tolhurst, Grant-road.

Mrs. and Miss Beere are leaving next month for a trip to England.

OPHELIA.

CHRISTCHURCH.

Dear Bee.

October 30.

A SMALL DANCE

was given by Mrs. Walter J. Moore at her residence, Brown's-road, St. Alban's, on Friday evening, in honour of the officers of the two warships now in Lyttelton. The rooms were artistically de-corated with flowers. Dancing took retton. The rooms were artistically de-corated with flowers. Dancing took place in the large dining-room. The decorations there were crimson and white. Mrs. Moore wore a handsome gown of black embroidered point d'esprit net over white satin with bands of black velvet, write satin with bains of black verter, and corsage bouquet of pale pink roses; Miss Moore, white satin with pearl embroidery; Miss D. Moore, pale pink minon, strapped with taffeta of the same shade and cream lace; Miss tiwen Moore, pretty frock of white muslin and lace; Mrs. Gower Burns were a gown of black sequined chiffon with crimson roses; Miss. N. Burns, pate blue spotted mousseline de soie; Miss Symes, black crepe de chine, relieved with cream lace; Miss Wilding, relieved with cream lace; Miss Wilding, relieved with cream lace; Miss Wilding, white mousseline de sole with touches of mauve ribbon; Miss C. Kettle, white crepe de chine over yellow silk, trimmed with gold tissue; Miss Humphreys, frock of white chiffon with silver fringe and touches of pale blue velvet; Miss Denniston, white satin and lace; Miss R. Anderson, yellow silk, veiled with winte chiffon and touches of gold tissue; Miss Merton, blue muslin and lace; Miss Mathias, white and pale blue floral muslin with insertions of lace; Messrs. Moore, Anderson (2), Malet, Wright, Nancarrow, Leiske, Vernon-Dinwiddie, Cochrane, and officers of H.M.s. Pioneer and Encounter. and Encounter.

was given the following evening at "Merchiston," Opawa, by Mrs. Andrew Anderson. The wide verandahs were closed in and used for dancing. Mrs. Anderson was handsomely gowned in dark green velvet with cream lace fichu and sleves; Miss Ruth Anderson, semi-Empire frock of pale blue satin with girdle of pale blue and sliver, a deep embroidered tucker of white tulle; Miss Muriel Anderson, pink and white pompadour silk with cream lace; Miss N. Burns, white chiffon over pale pink, trinimed with bands of pink lace insertion; Miss Gorrie (Auckland), pink and white floral chiffon; Miss G. Gorrie, black crepe de chine and white chiffon; Miss Kitson, cream satin, trimmed with black crepe de chine and white chiffon; Miss Kitson, cream satin, trimuned with gold; Miss Loughnan (Palmerston North), blue floral taffeta and cream lace; Miss Merton, pale blue spotted muslin and lace; Miss G. Merton, pink and white net; Miss Symes, black crepe de chine, relieved with cream and gold; Miss Lucy Cook, cream lace over white taffeta, corange bouquet of crimson roses; Miss B. Wood, frock of white chaffon taffeta; Miss Mathias, cream lace robe, worn over satin, with touches of pale blue velvet: Miss Nicholls, vienz rose crope de chine with rose embroidery: Miss A: Hunaphreys, pale pink ninon, banded with pink taffetas; Miss M. Molineaux, cream lace with belt of pale blue satin.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

The Misses Gorrie (Auckland) are in Christchurch, staying with friends. Miss Loughnan (Palmerston North) is the guest of Mrs. W. Wood.
Mrs. C. Dalgety, Mrs. Hall and Mis Campbell have returned from Dunedin.
Captain and Mrs. Fyler, of H.M.a. Encounter, are staying at the United Service Hotel in Christchurch.
Visitors to Christchurch include: Mrs. and Miss Barker (tieraldine), Mr. and Mrs. W. Rutherford (Montrose), Mrs. Percy Johnstone (Mt. Torlesse), and Mr. and Mrs. H. Acton Adams. and Mrs. II. Acton Adams.

DOLLY VALE.

SYDAL

If you rub Sydal on to your hands at night, they will soon reflect the soft, white, pleasing ap-pearance which is so characteristic of a lady. Anything responds to care and attention; but nothing so readily as your hands to SYDAL 1/6,

For Dainty Summer Frocks.

FANCY COTTON VOILES, a wonderful range in dainty colorings, and choice floral designs. Very stylish for this season's wear.

STRIPED PRINTS, white ground with stripes of any color, including the new two tones. These prints are ideal for summer, as they are in effective styles, will wash well and are reasonable in price.

FRENCH CAMBRICS in dark or light grounds, with spots, stripes or floral de-

STRIPED AND CHECK ZEPHYRS in endless var-Every piece really desirable.

SILK STRIPE COTTON VOILES, very choice fab-rics, double width.

OUR Display

Of new Summer Dress Goods is the talk of the ladies in Auckland Delightfully Dainty Summer PPP Materials in Florals and the new stripes, all the latest colorings suitable for the season. Included in the display are many exclusive fabrics which it will be impossible to obtain later in the season. You attention is specially invited to the excellent variety of boxed robes in white and colored muslins. These are beautifully embroidered, and will make elegant summer frocks.

WHITE SWISS MUSLINS. beautifully embroidered, always excellent for summer. FRENCH and ORGANDIE MUSLINS in a grand assortment of beautiful floral effects.

The NEW BORDERED ZEPHYRS in dozens of designs; in all the season's lovely colorings.

BOXED ROBES of dainty muslins, white or colored, embroidered in elegant pat-We have an unusually large stock of these, and many are exclusive. We invite you to make your choice now while the selection is complete.

WHITE EMBROIDERED BOXED BLOUSES, a large stock to select from.

Smith & Caughey, Ltd., Importers, Auckland.